Corruption In Nigeria The Niger Delta Experience:

Corruption in Nigeria Christian Uche Akani,2002 This book documents five presentations made at a two day conference on corruption organised by the Institute for Academic Freedom University of Port Harcourt in May 2000 The editor provides an overview observing the extent to which the crisis of corruption indivisible from the crisis of the Nigerian state and the colonial legacy impinges upon national economic calculations and sets out the anti corruption and good governance manifesto and the human rights agenda of the conference The ensuing papers cover and present possible solutions for the political economy of corruption the Nigerian state as an instrument of corruption corruption and the challenges of development and underdevelopment and corruption Corruption and Environmental Law Ignatius Akeh,2010 Dr Akeh s work is a rich contribution to the discourse on oil resources and the twin problems of corruption and ecological degradation in Nigeria with lessons for other sub Saharan African countries It is indeed a purposeful scientific work on a theme of substantial contemporary interest both practical and theoretical He presents a compelling case on how to dethrone both problems of corruption and environmental degradation and enthrone a lasting sustainable development in the Niger Delta

Good Governance in Nigeria Portia Roelofs,2023-04-20 Drawing on original fieldwork in Nigeria Portia Roelofs argues for an innovative re conceptualisation of good governance Contributing to debates around technocracy populism and the survival of democracy amidst conditions of inequality and mistrust Roelofs offers a new account of what it means for leaders to be accountable and transparent Centred on the rise of the Lagos Model in the Yoruba south west this book places the voices of roadside traders and small time market leaders alongside those of local government officials political godfathers and technocrats In doing so it theorises socially embedded good governance Roelofs demonstrates the value of fieldwork for political theory and the associated possibilities for decolonising the study of politics Challenging the long held assumptions of the World Bank and other international institutions that African political systems are pathologically dysfunctional Roelofs demonstrates that politics in Nigeria has much to teach us about good governance

Corruption and Development in Nigeria Olayinka Akànle,David O. Nkpe,2021-12-28 Despite being Africa s largest economy and most populous country with abundant natural resources Nigeria still faces substantial development challenges This book argues that corruption lies at the heart of many of the country s problems Drawing on a range of different disciplinary perspectives this volume explores the relationship between corruption and development investigating the causes contexts and consequences of corruption and the pathways for addressing it As well as covering the wider background and theory surrounding corruption in the country the book will investigate different sectors the media the judiciary the health sector industry the criminal justice system and of course politics and governance The book concludes by considering attitudes and perceptions to corruption within Nigeria current approaches to countering corruption and future pathways to addressing the problem This book s critical investigation of the links between corruption and development in Nigeria will be of interest to researchers of corruption development and

African Studies as well as to policy makers practitioners and local stakeholders Human rights and democratic governance in Kenya: A post-2007 appraisal John Osogo Ambani, Nicholas Wasonga Orago, Ochieng Walter Khobe, Paul Ogendi, Winifred Kamau, Conrad Bosire, Ken Obura, Juliet Okoth, Ruth Aura-Odhiambo, 2015-08-21 This publication is a collection of essays on human rights and democratic governance in Kenya in the period after the 2007 post elections violence After surviving the trauma of electoral violence the country soon embarked on a journey towards reconstruction by engaging in among other things intense re evaluation of the then existing system of laws and institutions In the process the daunting task has been to reverse the flawed systems that have been in existence for many decades and in their place entrench systems that would promote and respect democratic governance and human rights This publication therefore documents the extent of the country's reconstruction since 2007 and makes recommendations for the way forward for the recovery of the state Africa Now! Adebunsi Adeniran, Lanre Ikuteyijo, 2017-11-20 This book presents relevant and timely endogenous procedures for addressing the challenge of transforming ideas into sustainable opportunities in Africa It explores how Africa could be understood in the context of emerging global realities providing alternative frameworks that will not just be participatory in conception and practice but equally show a contextual workability for the varying aspects of the developmental enterprise in Africa Despite having alternative and less cumbersome sources of funding with commendable economic growth indices and several economies among the fastest growing globally African countries have been unable to transmute related opportunities into sustainable human development outcomes for majority of its citizenry Over four rich sections the authors cover subjects ranging from environment and natural resource management to governance economy and sustainable development The book continues with a section on Education and Human Development and a case study in transnationalism The final section discusses crime conflict and regional dynamics including highly disputed topics such as forced migration and sex trade This indispensable resource will be of great use to students and researchers globally in fields such as sociology anthropology environmental studies politics and economics with a focus on contemporary Africa as well as to policy planners and human rights activists invested in the future development of Africa Nigeria, a Nation Betrayed Ali Umar Rinji, 2001 The Nigerian Academic Forum, 2007 The Third World in Social Science Perspective, 2008 Olosunta, 2005 African Affairs, 1944 Law Society Journal, 2002 Citizen and State Relations Celestine O. democratic new dawn of the Fourth Republic discussing pertinent matters integral to Nigeria's democratic future post 2019

Governing Natural Resources for Sustainable Peace in Africa Obasesam Okoi, Victoria R Nalule, 2023-12-18 This book examines the dynamics of natural resource conflicts in Africa and explores the different governance approaches for securing sustainable peace. One of the most prominent challenges facing Africa today is the consequences of natural resource extraction. While these resources hold the potential for economic transformation across Africa, their extraction also comes with a range of environmental, social, and economic consequences, including issues related to governance. This book assembles a unique cohort of peacebuilding, environmental justice, and sustainable development scholars and practitioners from Africa and beyond to examine the dynamics of natural resource conflict and explore the governance approaches that offer pathways for sustainable peace in Africa. Drawing on case studies and empirical lessons from the Horn of Africa, Southern Africa, West Africa, East Africa, and the Central Sahel region, along with the African Union, the multidisciplinary contributors offer fresh insights into the nature of natural resource conflict in Africa, delve deeper into the complexities of natural resource governance, and highlight the interplay between resource governance and sustainable peace. By shedding light not only on Africa's experiences and vulnerabilities but also on the challenges of natural resource governance, this book fills a crucial gap in understanding the connection between natural resource governance, conflict, and pathways for sustainable peace in Africa. Drawing on a range of disciplinary perspectives, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of natural resource governance, peace and conflict studies, environmental policy and justice, sustainable development, security studies, and African studies more widely.
