

Cotton Candy On A Rainy Day

*Don't look now I'm fading away
Into the gray of my mornings
Or the blues of every night
Is it that my nails keep breaking Or maybe the corn on my second little piggy Things keep popping out on my face or of my life
It seems no matter how I try I become more difficult to hold
I am not an easy woman to want
They have asked the psychiatrists . . . psychologists . . .
politicians and social workers What this decade will be known for
There is no doubt . . . it is loneliness*
