Counterfeit Nazi The Ambiguity Of Good:

Counterfeit Nazi Saul Friedländer, 1969      Counterfeit Nazi Saul Friedländer, 1969      Counterfeit Nazi Saul Friedländer, 1969      The Holocaust and the Postmodern Robert Eaglestone, 2004-12-09 Robert Eaglestone argues that postmodernism especially understood in the light of the work of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida is a response to the Holocaust This way of thinking offers new perspectives on Holocaust testimony literature historiography and post Holocaust philosophy While postmodernism is often derided for being either playful and superficial or obscure and elitist Eaglestone argues and demonstrates its commitment both to the past and to ethics Dealing with Holocaust testimony including the work of Primo Levi and Eli Wiesel with the memoirs of second generation survivors and with recent Holocaust literature including Anne Michael s Fugitive Pieces Jonathan Safran Foer s Everything is Illuminated and the false memoir of Benjamin Wilkomirski The Holocaust and the Postmodern proposes a new way of reading both Holocaust testimony and Holocaust fiction Through an exploration of Holocaust historiography the book offers a new approach to debates over truth and memory Eaglestone argues for the central importance of the Holocaust in understanding the work of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and goes on to explore what the Holocaust means for rationality ethics and for the idea of what it is to be human Weaving together theory and practice testimony literature history philosophy and Holocaust studies this interdisciplinary book is the first to explore in detail the significance of the Holocaust for postmodernism and the significance of postmodernism for understanding the Holocaust      The Broken Voice Robert Eaglestone, 2017 Robert Eaglestone explores the interweaving of complicity responsibility temporality and the often problematic powers of narrative which make up some part of the legacy of the Holocaust He examines a range of texts by significant writers as well as work by victims and perpetrators of the Holocaust and of atrocities in Africa      The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg, Buckley Barry Barrett, 1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance

Histories of the Holocaust Dan Stone, 2010-06-17 A comprehensive and accessible guide to the major themes and debates in Holocaust historiography over the last two decades      History, Literature, Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra, 2013-05-15 In History Literature Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra continues his exploration of the complex relations between history and literature here considering history as both process and representation A trio of chapters at the center of the volume concern the ways in which history and literature particularly the novel impact and question each other In one of the chapters LaCapra revisits Gustave Flaubert pairing him with Joseph Conrad Other chapters pair J M Coetzee and W G Sebald Jonathan Littell s novel The Kindly Ones and Saul Friedlander s two volume prizewinning history Nazi Germany and the Jews A recurrent motif of the book is the role of the sacred its problematic status in sacrifice its virulent manifestation in social and political violence notably the Nazi genocide its role or transformations in literature and art and its multivalent expressions in postsecular hopes anxieties and quests LaCapra concludes the volume with an essay on the place of violence in the thought of Slavoj Zizek In LaCapra's view Zizek's provocative thought at times has uncanny echoes of earlier reflections on or apologies for political and seemingly regenerative even sacralized violence The Holocaust and the Crisis of Human Behavior George M. Kren, Leon Rappoport, 1980 A psycho-historical survey of the Holocaust focusing on the behavior of both the German perpetrators and the victims Regards the Holocaust as a historically unique mass destruction in terms of its motivation the Jews posed no physical challenge to Nazi rule its methods industrialized killing its emotional aspect as well as its totality It can be conceptualized as a historical crisis which disrupted the apparent continuity of Western history and shattered Western thought and culture Approaches the question why it was in Germany that the unparalleled genocide program against the Jews was implemented Sees the answer in the formation of German culture since the 16th century which made its people culturally vulnerable to authoritarian and anti-intellectual leadership in the deprivations and humiliation brought about by World War I and in Hitler's personality Proposes a psycho-history of the SS and its increasing involvement with the Holocaust Distinguishes between the roles of victims and resisters among the Jews For most of the Jews their fallacy of innocence their confidence that there was no cause to kill them caused them to ignore their victim status and diminished their chances to survive Contends that for the Jews of the Holocaust resistance and anti-Nazi violence had a therapeutic value rather than being a tactic of rescue Reviews existing interpretations of the Holocaust liberal ones Freudian Marxist and neo-Marxist as well as philosophical religious and finds them unsatisfactory The Holocaust cannot be assimilated in terms of normative Western thought structures The Nazi Era, 1919-1945 Helen Kehr, 1982

Reference Guide to Holocaust Literature Thomas Riggs, 2002 Covering the entire spectrum of the literature of the Holocaust era from the beginnings of Nazism through the concentration camp experience survivor syndrome and second-generation response this detailed survey includes entries on more than 200 authors and 300 works Author entries include detailed biographical information as well as expert analytical interpretation Work entries discuss each work in detail and include a critical essay written by an expert in the field Value-added features include chronologies further reading lists and nationality concentration camp and title indexes Humboldt Journal of Social Relations, 2004 The German Evangelical Church and the Jews, 1879-1950 Richard Gutteridge, 1976 The Jews Were Expendable Monty Noam Penkower, 1983 The Spectator, 1969-07 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art German Resistance to Hitler Peter Hoffmann, 1988 Fascination with the evil of the Nazi regime has not diminished in the decades since Hitler assumed power in Germany but the story of internal resistance to Nazism has not been as fully realized as have the innumerable tales of horror In this compact book Peter Hoffmann examines the growing recognition by some Germans in the 1930s of the malign nature of the Nazi regime the ways in which these people became involved in the resistance and the views of those who staked their lives in the struggle against tyranny and murder The earliest postwar accounts of the resistance by survivors and witnesses were followed by a variety of investigations and evaluations Peter Hoffmann here presents a complete reconstruction of this baffling and intriguing story After several decades of study of the German resistance to Nazism he has unlocked the secrets of its inner history Hoffmann recounts the methods of Hitler's rise to power in the tumultuous days of January and February 1933 the consolidation of his power as a result of the Rohm Massacre in 1934 and his growing criminality as evidenced by the rape of Czechoslovakia and the pogrom of 1938 The author describes the several attempts in 1938 and during the war years to dislodge Hitler from within the desperation of the luckless opponents over the carnage of war and the mass murders that threatened to engulf them and finally the attempt to assassinate Hitler on July 20 1944 Throughout he probes the motives of the resisters Some for example found it difficult to justify assassination even for the purpose of bringing an end to mass killing Hoffmann examines and discounts the accusation that the principal motive of those who resisted was to preserve their class privileges The resisters he concludes acted not so much in the hope of personal gain as from a moral obligation to challenge the evils they saw before them How was it Humanly Possible? Irena Steinfeldt, 2002 An educational guide for high school or college students as well as for the general reader Dwells in particular on the views of the perpetrators their actions thoughts worldviews and motivations Discusses also the Jewish victims and relates the activities of four rescuers of Jews Focusing on Germans deals with prejudice propaganda and youth culture mass murder deportation transports as seen by a perpetrator and a victim high officials in the extermination camp system H ss Stangl and Gerstein and bystanders and rescuers The approach is interdisciplinary involving documents testimonies photographs and works of literature and art A History of the Jews Since the First Century A.D. Frederick M. Schweitzer, 1971 An interpretation of the history of the Jewish people from the Roman period through the birth of Israel Britain and the Jews of Europe, 1939-1945 Bernard Wasserstein, 1988 An analysis of British government policy towards the Jews of Europe particularly regarding the refugee issue It was felt by both Jewish and non Jewish circles that any growth in refugee numbers would lead to antisemitism Fear of enemy aliens led to mass internment in 1940 of which a large proportion were Jews Immigration policy in regard to Palestine was restrictive also using the excuse of possible infiltration of enemy aliens Contends that wartime antisemitism has to be seen as an outgrowth of xenophobia heightened by war tensions and as a factor of psychological distancing from the victims Discusses the December 1942 declaration by Anthony Eden on behalf of the Allied countries condemning the extermination of European Jewry and the resolve to punish the perpetrators Public reaction was strong in Britain but sympathy for Europe's Jews bore little fruit in effective action The Memory of Catastrophe Peter Gray, Kendrick Oliver, 2004 Investigates the dynamic relationship between experiences of profound social and cultural disruption and human memory Critical comparisons are made across a wide variety of catastrophic experiences and memories not just of war but also of massacre genocide rebellion famine partition shipwreck and fire The book is an accessible showcase for a wide range of methodological approaches to the study of memory including literary studies cultural studies participant observation and historical studies and uses a variety of oral visual and written sources Offers a diverse chronological and geographical range of catastrophic cases from seventeenth century England to the recent conflicts in the former Yugoslavia from Ireland to the Indian sub continent from Mexico to wartime Leningrad Well written and accessible a fascinating read
