Commercial Guide ,1998 Perspectives on International Trade Elton V. Smith,2002 While some may dispute that economics is the driving force behind much of history nobody can argue that trade is not a significant factor in international relations In an increasingly globalised world products are perpetually crossing borders leading to both political and fiscal conflicts Businesses have to face diverse markets and regions while worrying about protectionist government initiatives that hamper free trade Even the ostensible champion of free markets America has its own streak of inhibiting the flow of goods witness the recent steel tariffs which have angered European partners No society therefore is immune to the pressures of world trade and the need to balance the free movement of products with the desire to preserve domestic industries This book assembles a collection of articles examining some of the most current and divisive issues in the international trade arena They range from the tensions between the United States and Mexico in NAFTA to the war fuelled trade in diamonds in Africa With such a broad range of issues discussed this book serves as a needed tool for understanding the most important contemporary economic subjects Asia/Pacific Markets ,1998 American Foreign Policy and Treaty Index ,1999

Global Marketing Kate Gillespie,2015-07-03 This textbook introduces students to the important concepts of global marketing today and their managerial implications Designed to be shorter than many other textbooks Global Marketing focuses on getting to the point faster Increasingly marketing activities must be integrated at a global level Yet the enduring influence of culture requires marketers to adapt local strategies in light of cultural differences Global Marketing takes a similar strategic approach recognizing the need to address both the forces of globalization and those of localization Other key features include Coverage of often overlooked topics such as the competitive rise of China s state owned enterprises the importance of diasporas as target markets and the emerging threat to legitimate marketers from transnational criminal organizations A chapter dedicated to understanding global and local competitors setting the stage for ongoing discussion of both buyers and competitors in an increasingly competitive global marketplace Extensive real life examples and cases from developed and emerging markets including insights into the often overlooked markets of Africa Latin America and the Middle East Written in a student friendly style previous editions have received praise from both students and instructors This edition continues to build on this strong foundation making this the book of choice for students of global marketing classes
