The Politics of Ethnolinguistic Mobilization in Europe Alistair Cole, Jean-Baptiste Harguindéguy, 2017-07-05

Language constitutes a very sensitive nexus between the concepts of territory and community. Though a fundamental issue in contemporary societies it remains relatively unaddressed by political scientists. This book promotes a better understanding of the connection between the concepts of identity, territory and language in the context of an enlarged Europe. We propose a portrait of the actual place of regional languages in European politics. Ethnolinguistic mobilisations have occurred in very different contexts and their interpretation needs to take into account varying configurations and conditions of success that we label as situational, institutional and socio-political. The book combines empirical case studies drawn from Spain, the UK, Poland, France, Ireland and Canada with comparative conceptual and theoretical insights into linguistic uniformity and diversity. The various chapters in the book go beyond description. The originality of the work is to bridge the institutionalisation of language regimes, the sociological analysis of languages rights movements and the normative underpinnings that ought to underpin language claims. This book was published as a special issue of Regional and Federal Studies. The Trials of William Hone on an Exofficio Information at Guildhall, London, 1817 William Hone, 1817

Developments in the European Union over the last decade have been largely positive from the perspective of stateless and minority ethnic groups and the survival and prosperity of minority languages. This selection of sociologically and ethnographically oriented work enables the reader to compare developments in different ethnolinguistic revival movements within the European Union. The contributions also explore the impact of EU policy and discourse on the individual movements and the orientation of Western Europe as a whole towards linguistic heterogeneity and cultural diversity. A companion volume 0 333 92924 1 examines the status of minority languages in post 1989 Eastern Europe. The Chronicles of America Series, 1921 The Book of Literature Richard Garnett, Léon Vallée, Alois Brandl, 1923 The Arena, 1897 Re-making of Europe.
