

THE COSMIC MIND-BOGGGLING BOOK

An Illustrated Guide That Uses
Your Senses to Bring the Wonders of the Universe down to Earth

Neil McAleer

With a Foreword by Robert Jastrow

- If you could hold a square mile of sunlight in your hand, it would weigh three pounds.
- If you could float through the rings of Saturn, the particles around you would look like fluffy snow and sparkle like colored glass.
- If a kernel of popcorn were dropped on a neutron star, it would produce as much energy as a World War II atomic bomb.
- If our solar system (the Sun and nine planets) could fit into a coffee cup, our Galaxy would be the size of North America.
- If an advanced galactic civilization responds at the speed of light to Earth's first extraterrestrial transmission (sent in 1974), we'll get the message in A.D. 51,974.
- If Earth-sized planets lined up and waited their turns, the biggest black hole could gobble them up 3.52 to the second, 111 million a year.

The Moral Philosophy of George Berkeley Paul J. Olscamp,2012-12-06 Upon the whole I am inclined to think that the far greater part if not all of those difficulties which have hitherto amused philosophers and blocked up the way to knowledge are entirely owing to our selves That we have 1 first raised a dust and then complain we cannot see there are some passages that taken by themselves are very liable nor could it be remedied to gross misinterpretation and to be charged with most absurd consequences which nevertheless upon an entire perusal will 2 appear not to follow from them In an effort to comply with these excellent principles of Berkeley s I have tried to avoid complex language throughout this book and to give all of his works the careful scrutiny he urges in order to avoid misplaced emphasis and quoting out of context George Berkeley waS born in Dysert Castle Thomastown Kilkenny Ireland in 1685 He is among the best known of Western philosophers but a brief sketch of the high points of his life might nonetheless be of some interest His father William Berkeley was related to Lord Berkeley of Stratton who was the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland from 1670 to 1672 His mother was probably related to General Wolfe the conqueror of Montcalm in Canada He was educated at Kilkenny School and at Trinity College Dublin where he received Bachelor s and Master s degrees in 1704 and 1707 respectively
