

Cosmic Reconciliation in Ephesians

- The universe (which God created) has suffered a dislocation and disruption because of sin. It is now under the control of evil, hostile powers.
- God's intention is that all the universe must be reconciled to Christ. It must be rescued from sin and the evil powers.
- Through his death on the cross, Christ has begun the process of reconciling all things to himself, in heaven and earth. He has defeated sin and the powers of evil.
- The church is the first installment and the means of this reconciliation, where Christ has reconciled Jew and Gentile into one new humanity.
