Administration of Criminal Justice Alan Coffey, 1974 Statistics for Criminal Justice and Criminology Dean J. Champion, Richard D. Hartley, 2010 Using a non technical approach this book covers the full range of statistics topics from descriptive statistical techniques to tests of significance and measures of association for two and k variable combinations for different measurement levels multiple regression and multivariate analysis collinearity ordinary least squares regression part and partial correlation error parsimony and robustness Chapters are filled with examples and illustrations from contemporary criminal justice and criminology literature with an emphasis on how statistics fits into the research process and how causality is established This edition devotes a full chapter to SPSS includes interpretive statistical tables with explanatory headnotes and footnotes and offers step by step formulae to heighten the meaningfulness of statistics for criminal justice and social science majors

The Criminal Justice System George T. Felkenes, 1974 This is a study of the duties functions qualifications selection processes and potential for advancement associated with law enforcement courts and correctional personnel The specific roles and the personnel that comprise the operating criminal justice system are identified and analyzed in this study Detailing not only duties and functions but also qualifications selection processes and even potential for advancement the work forms an unusual perspective of the field for students of law enforcement police science criminal law criminology and corrections The study details over fifty five distinct professions within the criminal justice system and discusses the qualifications required and the tasks performed by each A major section of the book is its examination of the prosecutorial function the powers and duties the major concepts and criticisms of the role of the prosecutor and the multi faceted role of the defense attorney including his duties and professional responsibilities as well as the function of court appointed counsels and public defenders Law enforcement is viewed at every level from municipal through federal agencies with a focus on police legal advisors criminalists and the numerous other individuals who comprise the total law enforcement complex The function of the court is presented through the roles of the various court officers judges juries grand juries bailiffs clerks and reporters Each is discussed in terms of qualifications duties and function in the mechanics of the courtroom procedure A final section covers the corrections system the custodial and institutional personnel as well as the juvenile probation and parole officers who work with offenders in the community
