Monani, Joni Adamson, 2016-08-05 This book addresses the intersections between the interdisciplinary realms of Ecocriticism and Indigenous and Native American Studies and between academic theory and pragmatic eco activism conducted by multiethnic and indigenous communities It illuminates the multi layered polyvocal ways in which artistic expressions render ecological connections drawing on scholars working in collaboration with Indigenous artists from all walks of life including film literature performance and other forms of multimedia to expand existing conversations Both local and global in its focus the volume includes essays from multiethnic and Indigenous communities across the world visiting topics such as Navajo opera Sami film production history south Indian tribal documentary Maori art installations Native American and First Nations science fiction literature and film Amazonian poetry and many others Highlighting trans Indigenous sensibilities that speak to worldwide crises of environmental politics and action against marginalization the collection alerts readers to movements of community resilience and resistance cosmological thinking about inter and intra generational multi species relations and understandings of indigenous aesthetics and material ecologies It engages with emerging environmental concepts such as multispecies ethnography cosmopolitics and trans indigeneity as well as with new areas of ecocritical research such as material ecocriticism biosemiotics and media studies In its breadth and scope this book promises new directions for ecocritical thought and environmental humanities practice providing thought provoking insight into what it means to be human in a locally situated globally networked and cosmologically complex world      Omnidoxy

Cometan, Astronist Institution, 2019-02-11 The Omnidoxy is the founding treatise of the Astronist religion and was solely authored by the philosopher and religious founder Cometan Partitioned into twelve disquisitions each of which are further divided into hundreds of discourses which are themselves titled by those which are known as rubrals The Omnidoxy has been codified according to a unique writing structure known as insentence The Omnidoxy not only forms the foundations of Astronism but it remains the primary modern contributor and the book that ignited the establishment of the Astronic tradition of religion which encompasses the philosophy of Astronism Introducing brand new philosophical concepts such as cosmocentricity reascensionism transcensionism and sentientism amongst many others The Omnidoxy remains the principal signifier of a new era in philosophy The Omnidoxy births hundreds of new belief orientations schools of thought neologisms disciplines of study theories and concepts which when combined and considered collectively have formed the basis of Astronism The authorship of The Omnidoxy rests with the single individual philosopher Cometan who began writing The Omnidoxy at the age of seventeen driven by what he terms as personal inspiration The historical origination of The Omnidoxy rests in its authorship by Brandon Taylorian during early 21st century England specifically in the northern county of Lancashire Like in all textual criticism the timing and location of the codification of The Omnidoxy is integral to understanding why and how it was written especially by considering the influential factors impacting Taylorian during his construction of the text particularly the cultural political religious and social contexts of Taylorian s personal life and of wider society at the time This forms an important branch of study within omnidoxiology known as omnidoxical criticism or omnidoxical exegesis in which scholars study and investigate The Omnidoxy in order to discern conclusive judgements inspired by how where why by whom for whom and in what circumstances The Omnidoxy was written
