Housed within Connect, SmartBook is an adaptive study tool that helps identify specific topics and learning objectives individual students need to study. As students read SmartBook, it assesses comprehension and dynamically highlights where they need to focus more. The result is that students are more engaged with course content, can better prioritize their time, and come to class ready to participate.

Management Thomas S. Bateman, Scott Snell, 2007 Cost Management, 2014

Cost Management Edward Blocher, Kung Chen, Gary Cokins, Thomas Lin, 2004-02. Cost Management: A Strategic Emphasis by Blocher, Chen, Cokins, Lin is the first cost accounting text to offer integrated coverage of strategic management topics in cost accounting. The text is written to help students understand more about management and the role of cost management in helping a firm or organization to succeed. This text aims to teach management concepts and methods and how managers use cost management information to make better decisions and improve their company's competitiveness. In teaching these key management skills, the text takes on a strategic focus. It uncovers issues such as how does a firm compete? What type of cost management information is needed for a firm to succeed and how does the management accountant develop and present this information? This text helps students learn why, when, and how cost information is used to make effective decisions that lead a firm to success.

Cost Management Ronald W. Hilton, Michael W. Maher, Frank Selto, 2002-03-01. Hilton, Maher, Selto HMS addresses traditional cost concepts but makes cost accounting functional by focusing on measuring and managing costs. HMS maintains that costs don't just happen and with a proactive approach toward costs, accountants can add value to an organization. Faculty will appreciate the new and more conventional chapter organization in the first two sections of the text. The real world approach of this text, including the use of focus companies and the new accompanying focus sites, provides a realistic business environment and aids in student comprehension and interest in the subject.
