Count Us In Growing Up With Down Syndrome:

Count Us In Jason Kingsley, Mitchell Levitz, 1994-01-12 Award winner Hearing about Down syndrome directly from these young men has a good deal more impact than reading any guide from a professional Booklist This book is in Mitchell and Jason's own words We wanted readers to have a true to life sense of their charm their directness their humor and warmth and yes their intelligence At ages nineteen and twenty two respectively Jason Kingsley and Mitchell Levitz shared their innermost thoughts feelings hopes dreams and their experiences growing up with Down syndrome Their frank discussion of what mattered most in their lives careers friendships school sex marriage finances politics and independence earned Count Us In numerous national awards including the EDI Award from the National Easter Seal Society More important their wit intelligence candor and charm made for a powerful and inspirational statement about the full potential of people with developmental disabilities challenging prevailing stereotypes In this edition with a new afterword the authors also discuss their lives since then milestones and challenges and changes both expected and unexpected Their parents were told to expect nothing But Jason Kingsley and Mitchell Levitz were lucky because their parents didn't listen They gave their sons that chance to show how far they could go and they've astounded everyone Jane Pauley This single volume will do more to change stereotypes about Down syndrome than any book I have read These two young men steal our hearts and wash away generations of misconceptions Mary L Coleman MD Emeritus Georgetown University An excellent illustration of what it's like to have Down syndrome Most moving here are the portrayals of strong family relationships Publishers Weekly Will open eyes and touch the heart Library Journal

The Rhetoric of Social Intervention Susan K. Opt, Mark A. Gring, 2009 The first ever thorough exploration and discussion of the rhetorical model of social invention RSI initially conceived by rhetorical theorist William R Brown for today's students and scholars

Social Work with People with Learning Difficulties Paul Williams, 2009-04-17 Current practice in the field is driven by the government White Paper Valuing People 2001 which declared radical aims for services for people with learning difficulties This fully revised second edition includes key updates on this White Paper and provides an up to date evaluation of the progress made towards those aims Using case studies activities and further reading to reinforce learning this book explores an important area of social work practice and examines the varied roles social workers might undertake including the achievements and satisfaction of working with service users with learning difficulties and challenges

Down Syndrome Lynn Nadel, Donna Rosenthal, 1995-02-20 Advances in medicine are allowing people with Down syndrome to live longer and more productively while at the same time creating new challenges for them and the people who provide their care Written under the auspices of the National Down Syndrome Society this book is an invaluable tool for parents and health care professionals enabling people with Down syndrome to participate to the fullest in community life

Reflections from a Different Journey Stanley Klein, John Kemp, 2004-03-22 Offers parents of children with disabilities inspiration and advice from those who've been there Reflections from a Different

Journey presents 40 stories by successful adults who grew up with disabilities They provide insights into what it is like to persevere in the face of community prejudices and what it takes for families and children with disabilities to work together toward fulfillment While there are many books for parents on raising a child with a disability this is the first to help them learn from people with disabilities and to help children face the unique challenges and rewards of growing up with a disability Reflections from a Different Journey will also encourage and inspire older children and adults with disabilities other family members and education and health care professionals who serve these families Adults with Down Syndrome Siegfried M. Pueschel,2006 From the author of A Parents Guide to Down Syndrome and Adolescents with Down Syndrome a essential new book on adulthood Down Syndrome Across the Life Span Monica Cuskelly,2002 This book promotes a positive message for people with Down syndrome across the world Living with Down Syndrome is a positive experience for the majority of children and adults with Down syndrome and for their families Of course there are difficulties to be faced but quality of life from infancy to old age is determined more by the quality of healthcare education and social inclusion offered to individuals than by the developmental difficulties that are associated with Down syndrome The aim of this book is to bring the latest information on research and good practice to families practitioners and policy makers in order improve the services available to individuals with Down syndrome in all countries Understanding Down Syndrome Cliff Cunningham,1996 Using positive readable language this book helps parents understand Down syndrome Exceptional Child Education Resources ,1994 Braille Books Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped,1996 Books for the Teen Age New York Public Library,2001 Journal of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly,1994 Includes Special sessions The Disability Studies Reader Lennard J. Davis,2006 The second edition of The Disability Studies Reader builds and improves upon the classic first edition which has sold well over 6000 copies since 1999 As a field disability studies burst onto the scene across the social sciences and humanities in the 1990s and the first edition of the reader gathered the best work that had been written on the subject including essays by famous authors such as Susan Sontag and Erving Goffman The new edition is more global in its coverage and adds material on genetic testing the human genome queer studies and issues in developing countries The size of the audience has grown since the first edition s publication and the second edition s new material will make it even more useful for courses on the subject Courses on the subject have mushroomed in the past ten years and can now be found across the social sciences humanities and behavioral sciences Michigan Law Review ,2004 New Voices Gunnar Dybwad,Hank A. Bersani,1996 This book portrays the origins current status and future course of the self advocacy movement by persons with disabilities in the West Teaching Students with Mental Retardation Michael L. Wehmeyer,Deanna J. Sands,H. Earle Knowlton,Elizabeth B. Kozleski,2002 Read and profit You cannot do the former without achieving the latter Talking Book Topics ,1995 Injustice and the Care of Souls Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,Karen Brown Montagno,2009 Pastoral care is often focused on individual problems but much of what harms and impedes us stems from the larger social maladies at work in our lives. This unprecedented gathering of two dozen essays discusses the realities of racism, sexism, heterosexism, ageism, ableism, and classism prevalent within the church and society in an effort to broaden and inform pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and the skills needed to respond effectively to oppressed and marginalized persons. The volumes also help pastors to reflect on the ways their own social location has an impact on their ministries and to gain familiarity with resources available to support pastoral caregivers in a variety of contexts.

Extraordinary People with Disabilities Deborah Kent, Kathryn A. Quinlan, 1996. Real life stories of struggle, achievement, victory, and sometimes loss that are an ideal companion for history, social science, language, and geography studies. The Extraordinary People series is the perfect starter for students who want to know more about the people who shaped their world, focusing on the unique histories of people from every culture and every walk of life.

The Parent to Parent Handbook Betsy Santelli, Florene Stewart Poyadue, Jane Leora Young, 2001. In this comprehensive book you will learn how to develop and maintain a strong local Parent to Parent program that individually matches veteran supporting parents with those who are new to the challenges of caring for a child with a disability.
