Countdown An Autobiography:

Countdown Colonel Frank Borman,1988-10-01 From the time he was sworn in as a cadet at West Point in 1946 to the day he resigned from the presidency of Eastern Airlines in the summer of 1986 Frank Borman chose to excel as an Air Force fighter pilot West Point instructor test pilot and astronaut 35 photos Countdown Frank Borman,Robert J. Serling,1988 An autobiography by the former astronaut who flew Gemini 7 and Apollo 8 missions and later served as a diplomat and then president of Eastern Airlines Moon Bound Colin Burgess,2013-03-12 Often lost in the shadow of the first group of astronauts for the Mercury missions the second and third groups included the leading figures for NASA s activities for the following two decades Moon Bound complements the author s recently published work Selecting the Mercury Seven 2011 extending the story of the men who helped to launch human spaceflight and broaden the American space program Although the initial 1959 group became known as the legendary pioneering Mercury astronauts the astronauts of Groups 2 and 3 gave us many household names Sixteen astronauts from both groups traveled to the Moon in Project Apollo with several actually walking on the Moon one of them being Neil Armstrong This book draws on interviews to tell the astronauts personal stories and recreate the drama of that time It describes the process by which they were selected as astronauts and explains how the criteria had changed since the first group Moon Bound is divided into two parts recounting the biographies relating to the nine astronauts from NASA s Group 2 in the first part and the fourteen finalists in Group 3 in the second part The stories of both selection groups are narrated through the experiences of four finalists with interesting backgrounds One of these men is Al Rupp of the USAF who as a West Point cadet cheekily helped to steal the Navy mascot goat prior to the annual Army versus Navy game in 1953 thus achieving legendary status in the game s history Rupp was killed in a plane crash just two years after being named as a finalist for Group 3 The service career of naval aviator John Yamnicky was also very much the equal of other finalists but he was killed on September 11 2001 as he was a passenger on hijacked Flight 77 which was flown into the Pentagon At the end of the work there are several chapters on how these candidates were prepped for their missions

The Future of Rock and Roll Robin James, 2023-04-06 In 1983 an

Ohio radio station called WOXY launched a sonic disruption to both corporate rock and to its conservative home region programming an omnivorous range of genres and artists while being staunchly committed to local independent art and media. In the 1990s as alternative rock went mainstream and radio grew increasingly homogeneous WOXY gained international renown as one of Rolling Stone's Last Great Independent Radio stations. The station projected a philosophy that prioritized such independence: the idea that truly progressive, transgressive, futuristic disruptions of the status quo were possible only when practiced with and for other people. In The Future of Rock and Roll, philosopher Robin James uses WOXY's story to argue against a corporate vision of independence in which everyone fends for themselves and in favor of an alternative way of thinking and relating to one another that disrupts norms but is nevertheless supported by communities. Against the standard retelling of the history of modern rock, James looks to the local scenes that made true independence possible by freeing individual artists from the whims of the boardroom. This philosophy of community-rooted independence offers both a counternarrative to the orthodox history of indie rock and an alternative worldview to that of the current corporate mainstream.
