From Country to Nation Gideon Fujiwara, 2021-05-15 From Country to Nation tracks the emergence of the modern Japanese nation in the nineteenth century through the history of some of its local aspirants. It explores how kokugaku (Japan studies) scholars envisioned their place within Japan and the globe while living in a castle town and domain far north of the political capital. Gideon Fujiwara follows the story of Hirao Rosen and fellow scholars in the northeastern domain of Tsugaru. On discovering a newly opened Japan facing the dominant Western powers and a defeated Qing China, Rosen and other Tsugaru intellectuals embraced kokugaku to secure a place for their local country within the broader nation and to reorient their native Tsugaru within the spiritual landscape of an Imperial Japan protected by the gods. Although Rosen and his fellows celebrated the rise of Imperial Japan, their resistance to the Western influence and modernity embraced by the Meiji state ultimately resulted in their own disorientation and estrangement. By analyzing their writings (treatises, travelogues, letters, poetry, liturgies, and diaries) alongside their artwork, Fujiwara reveals how this socially diverse group of scholars experienced the Meiji Restoration from the peripheries. Using compelling firsthand accounts, Fujiwara tells the story of the rise of modern Japan from the perspective of local intellectuals who envisioned their local country within a nation that emerged as an empire of the modern world.

MARTIAL WORLD CHAPTER 68 Dang The Bao, 2025-08-02 MARTIAL WORLD CHAPTER 68 The Divine Rune Master Guild's Divine Rune Master Assessment was held every year to select talents for the Divine Rune Master Guild. For this assessment opportunity, many young people would enter Divine Rune City every year, hoping to be recognized by the Divine Rune Master Guild, carrying the Divine Rune Master badge on their chests. These young people did not only come from Divine Rune City itself; they came from other parts of the Asura Road, such as Yue Qiufeng and Yue Liuxing, siblings who had come here. During the assessment, early in the morning, Lin Ming stood at the main entrance of the Divine Rune Master Guild and looked at the majestic and imposing signboard of the Divine Rune Master Guild and took a deep breath.

Ministry in the Anglican Tradition from Henry VIII to 1900 John L. Kater, 2022-06-01 Once Henry VIII declared the Church of England free of papal control in the sixteenth century and the process of Reformation began, the Church of England rapidly developed a distinctive style of ministry that reflected the values and practices of the English people. In Ministry in the Anglican Tradition from Henry VIII to 1900, John L. Kater traces the complex process by which Anglican ministry evolved in dialogue with social and political changes in England and around the world. By the end of the Victorian period, ministry in the Anglican tradition had begun to take on the broad diversity we know today. This book explores the many ways in which laypeople, clergy, and missionaries in multiple settings and under various conditions have contributed to the emergence of a uniquely Anglican way of responding to the call to serve Christ and the world. That ministry preserved many of the insights of its Reformation ancestors and their heritage even as it continued to respond to the new and often unfamiliar contexts it now calls home.
