Stuart Hall, Conjunctural Analysis and Cultural Criminology Tony Jefferson, 2021-06-30 This book discusses Stuart Hall's unique contribution to criminology. It suggests that this is captured best in Hall's commitment to understanding a given historical moment or conjuncture in its full complexity and his continuous deployment of an appropriate methodology: conjunctural analysis. To do so, this provides a running thread linking Hall's early work on youth subcultures, the media, the state, and hegemony to his later work on racial identities, racism, and the politics of difference. This is contrasted with more theoretically driven work in cultural criminology. Its failure to adopt a conjunctural approach constitutes for the author something of a missed moment. To demonstrate the continuing relevance of this form of analysis, the book provides a conjunctural analysis of Brexit, including its psychosocial dimension, and concludes with a brief analysis of Trump's failure to get re-elected. The book is intended for students of criminology and cultural studies.

Novels of Everyday Life Laurie Langbauer, 2019-05-15 Laurie Langbauer argues that our worldview is shaped not just by great public events but also by the most overlooked and familiar aspects of common life: the everyday. This sphere of the everyday has always been a crucial component of the novel but has been ignored by many writers and critics and long associated with the writing of women. Focusing on the linked series of novels characteristic of later Victorian and early modern fiction, such as Margaret Oliphant's Carlingford Chronicles or the Sherlock Holmes stories, she investigates how authors make use of the everyday as a foundation to support their versions of realism. What happens when, in the series novel or in contemporary theory, the everyday becomes a site of contestation and debate? Langbauer pursues this question through the novels of Margaret Oliphant, Charlotte Yonge, Anthony Trollope, and Arthur Conan Doyle, and in the writings of Dorothy Richardson, Virginia Woolf, and John Galsworthy as they reflect on their Victorian predecessors. She also explores accounts of the everyday in the works of such theorists as Henri Lefebvre, Michel de Certeau, and Sigmund Freud, as well as materialist critics including George

Lukacs Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno Her work shows how these writers link the series and the everyday in ways that reveal different approaches to comprehending the obscurity that makes up daily life American Book Publishing Record ,1984-04 Philosophy of Film Without Theory Craig Fox,Britt Harrison,2023-04-19 This book challenges the long standing presumption that serious philosophical engagement with film and television must be theoretical It demonstrates by example how philosophy of film and film studies can move beyond the methodological assumption that understands philosophical to mean theoretical In seventeen specially commissioned essays one in depth interview and one reprint leading philosophers and film scholars exploit the approaches arguments and insights of Ludwig Wittgenstein Stanley Cavell Iris Murdoch Augustine Berys Gaut No l Carroll and Ordinary Language Philosophy in exploring amongst others Gravity Lone Star The Handmaid s Tale Le notti di Cabiria Dunkirk L Ann e derni re Marienbad Visitors The Night it Rained Philadelphia Story Shoah Mary Magdalene Psycho Blue Jasmine Three Colours Red War Games and Histoire s du Cin ma In so doing this collection argues for the power of theory free philosophy and film studies as a way to expand our humanistic understanding
