Kenneth Surin, Historic, and a Theory of Social Change

Barbara A. Benschke

Revealing the full range of Kenneth Surin's contribution to the possibility of social change, Addressing Postmodernity articulates a theory that is responsive to one of postmodernity's distinctive challenges: the fragmentation of the contemporary lifeworld.

Working in the wake of the critique of humanism that has rendered conventional positivist assumptions about subjectivity, agency, language, and structure that have served as grounding for theories of social change in the past, Barbara Benschke determines the conditions of possibility for human beings to transform social relations for use of the postpositional use of symbols. In discerning the conditions of possibility for social transformation and the role of human beings and others in it, Benschke turns to the seminal work of Kenneth Surin.

Addressing Postmodernity presents a deconstructive reading of the three books that comprise the apex of Surin's career: A Grammar of Absence, A History of Absence, and The Character of Religious Studies in Linguistics. Benschke shows that Surin, in A Grammar of Absence, specifies the conditions of possibility for human

Addressing Postmodernity:

Addressing Postmodernity Barbara Biesecker, 2000-10-05 A deconstructive reading of the three texts that constitute the apex of Burke's career: A Grammar of Motives, A Rhetoric of Motives, and The Rhetoric of Religion. Studies in Logology. Confronting challenges posed by postmodernity to social theorists and critics alike. Biesecker, U of Iowa argues that a radicalized rereading of Burke's theory of the negative opens the way toward a rhetorical theory of social change and human agency. Of interest to philosophers, social theorists, graduate students, and precocious undergraduates. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc, Portland, OR.

Pragmatism, Technology, and the Persistence of the Postmodern Andrew Wells Garnar, 2020-07-15. Is postmodernity over? Does postmodernism still have anything important to say? Pragmatism, Technology, and the Persistence of the Postmodern argues yes to both. Despite the claims of a number of scholars that postmodernism is over and done with, Andrew Wells Garnar demonstrates its continued relevance by carefully examining the use of information and communication technologies. These technologies illustrate many important postmodern concepts, thus showing the continued significance of postmodern philosophy. Garnar reconstructs these concepts with the tools of classical pragmatism. By engaging with pragmatists as well as with the thought of Jean-François Lyotard, Albert Borgmann, and others, this book produces a revitalized vision of both pragmatism and the postmodern. This version of pragmatism reflects the tenor of the times in a more nuanced way while also showing how the postmodern continues to play out in contemporary life. Pragmatism, Technology, and the Persistence of the Postmodern shows how a pragmatic conception of technology opens up possibilities for working within postmodernity to materially address social and technical problems.

The History and Theory of Rhetoric Luke Winslow, James A. Herrick, 2025-08-19. By tracing the traditional progression of rhetoric from the Greek Sophists to contemporary theorists, this updated eighth edition gives students a conceptual framework for evaluating and practicing persuasive writing and speaking in a wide range of settings, including written, visual, and digital media. Through an expansive historical purview, the book illustrates how persuasive public discourse performs essential social functions and shapes our societies, drawing on the ideas of many of history's greatest thinkers and theorists. This new edition includes an integrated exploration of non-Western rhetorics, an updated account of contemporary rhetoric, and an enhanced analysis of rhetorical theory in a digital age. Known for its clear writing style and contemporary examples throughout, The History and Theory of Rhetoric emphasizes the relevance of rhetoric to today's students. This revised edition serves as a core textbook for rhetoric courses in both English and communication programs, covering both the historical tradition of rhetoric and contemporary rhetoric studies. A suite of online resources, including a detailed instructor's manual, PowerPoint slides, and videos from Dr. Winslow, can be found on the Instructor and Student Resources website at www.routledgelearning.com/historyofrhetoric.

Los Angeles as Postmodern Space Markus Widmer, 2008-11 Essay from the year 1998 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1 A University of Aberdeen English Department course Read the City Read the Text 11 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Edward W Soja called Los Angeles the quintessential postmodern metropolis This however shall not be the premise of my argument in this essay because of the obvious danger of circularity Yet I will use postmodern critics and compare my findings to postmodern models of culture space and society I will not discuss the term postmodernism itself simply because the range of this essay does not allow my entering this ongoing debate The term will be used as denoting both a period beginning for my purposes in the 1960s and a theory of cultural tendencies in contemporary life For this essay I will assume that postmodernism is a fact a part of everyday reality and that it differs substantially from modernism The main body of this essay will consist of a discussion of the fundamental factors which define Los Angeles as postmodern space I will focus on particularities that distinguish Los Angeles from other cities most of all from those which have not yet crossed the threshold of postmodernity Firstly I will investigate the geographical instability of the city the fact that it is threatened to be annihilated by natural forces such as earthquakes and the desert Secondly I will address the idea of the city as a desert its horizontality its vastness its lack of centre Thirdly the structure on this flat surface will be addressed the freeways as an arterial network and the structure of segregating walls both literal and metaphorical Finally I will conclude by investigating the parallels between the idea of instability that underlies all of the factors I discuss and the notion of the unstable in postmodernism
