Adopted Jane Helen Fern Daringer, 2002 A young orphan girl experiences life outside the orphanage for the first time when she is invited to live with two different families one wonderful summer Adopted Jane Helen Fern Daringer, 1947 A young orphan girl spends the summer with two families hoping that one will adopt her Jane is Adopted Althea, 1984

The convolvulus Allen Norton, 2021-05-19 In The Convolvulus Allen Norton deftly intertwines themes of identity nature and the complexities of human relationships through a richly poetic narrative Set against the backdrop of a small coastal town the story explores the lives of its inhabitants as they navigate personal turmoil and communal bonds symbolized by the intertwining vines of the convolvulus flower Norton's lyrical prose invites readers into a world where the natural environment serves not just as a setting but as a catalyst for transformation and revelation engaging with the literary traditions of magical realism and evocative symbolism Allen Norton a celebrated author and environmental advocate draws on his extensive background in botany and psychology helping inform the nuanced character development and vivid imagery within the novel His diverse experiences including years spent researching environmental psychology lend authenticity to the narrative's exploration of how individual psyches are influenced by their natural surroundings Norton's passion for the preservation of biodiversity becomes a subtle but powerful undercurrent in The Convolvulus highlighting the interconnectedness of all life This compelling read is highly recommended for those who appreciate intricate storytelling that resonates on both personal and ecological levels The Convolvulus invites readers to reflect on their relationships with nature and each other making it a profound addition to contemporary literature for anyone seeking a thoughtful and transformative experience In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read Voices from the Inside Chinyere Ogbonna, Ross Nordin, 2009-09-24 Voices from the Inside takes readers into the cells of a maximum security prison to reveal the personal accounts of over sixty women that are incarcerated for drug crimes The stories will shock and entertain and will certainly help readers to see more than the statistics behind drug offenses Research included in this book examines the history of prohibition in the United States with special emphasis on alcohol and drug prohibition and analyzes empirical data pertaining specifically to the incarceration of female drug offenders in Tennessee Personal interviews with these women regard the criminal justice processes both before and after their incarceration This book is a must read for those seeking to understand the impact of current drug policies on individuals and the community as well as why these policies are not working Pediatric Massage Therapy Marybetts Sinclair, 2004-03-01 This book provides a complete overview of the concepts and techniques that massage therapists physical or occupational therapists and other healthcare professionals need to know in order to perform manual therapy on children especially those with disabilities The author fully covers the applications of massage therapy for children ages 2 to 18

Pediatric Massage Therapy Second Edition is well written well researched and expertly illustrated to provide a clear demonstrative guide to pediatric massage Topics include massage in healthy emotional development managing psychological stress physical therapy and home healthcare Real life examples and anecdotes from hands on therapists help readers relate to specific applications

Recognising Adoptee Relationships Christine A. Lewis,2022-08-01 With a triadic perspective this autoethnographic narrative explores the temporal situated nature of interactions between the author as an adoptee with her adult adopted children as well as those between herself and her birth father and mother The epiphanic adoptive family narratives that are foregrounded seek to deepen and challenge understanding of how kinship affinities are experienced The autoethnographic narratives are written in a critical evocative style which is valuable for two reasons Firstly the processes of reflexive self introspection self observation and dialogue with relational others have established a critical connection between recognising and responding to kinship affinities and personal growth Secondly lying at the intersection of the self and other this narrative contributes to deepening insights around epistemic in justice in adoptive kinship This book will be of interest to educators and scholars of adoption in offering an insider perspective on unique family relationships as well as how the author undertakes critical evocative autoethnography Adoptees adoptive parents and birth parents will also find the narratives in Part II of this book of particular interest in informing an understanding of kin relationships and how these may be subject to change over time

The Magical Mystical Miracle Place Deep in the Forest Iris Therese Smith Reid,2019-07-16 A cave deep in the great forest is the gateway to a magical mystical miracle place where dreams come true illnesses are washed away and love is pure But only those selected by destiny can find the cave As a young woman Faith is guided to the cave and develops a unique bond with it She settles on one of a small cluster of farms bordering the forest where her destiny and that of her family are touched by miracles Succeeding generations rely on Faith s guidance and wisdom until she herself returns to the magical mystical miracle place for her last great adventure The Book of Letters D H Fortin,Rev. Les Seto,2019-03-21 The Book of Letters American Correspondence is about the letter writing that occurred between two men growing up in different parts of the United States Lutheran Pastor Les Seto and correctional worker D H Fortin developed a lasting friendship that began when they met in church The two men s lifelong interest in letter writing soon became apparent The ten year span of letter writing between the two men began with sharing the news of Vacaville CA pop 96 000 and the smaller city of Waikoloa HI You ll read an account of what was happening to both men during this time period Americans have certainly struggled with unsettling events from natural disasters to mass shootings Pastor Seto is comforting and informative as he teaches you how to achieve balance in this life through scripture and prayer He shares his own personal account of his struggles and accomplishments of ministering through a fundamentally sound understanding of God In his chapters Fortin shows how letter writing affected him and impacted the inmates he encouraged while working as a senior counselor in the apex of his prison career Throughout time writing letters has been an honorable method of sharing

This book's how to application teaches how you can be a blessing to others by writing about your own experiences with prayer and the joy of overcoming defeat Through reading poetry songs letters and books you'll learn how authors Fortin and Seto developed a desire to teach others their skills You will read about President Thomas Jefferson songwriter Fanny J Crosby author Amy Carmichael Reverend Billy Graham a poet and others Through their eyes you will see the methods of reaching out to others with ideas and kind heartfelt writing You could be one of The Thousand Points of Light Loss and Privilege Marian McCraney Perry, 2025-11-14 Nathan's ancestors came to America in 1739 in the first wave of Scots escaping the fallout of the Jacobite Rebellion His clan's progenitor Gillouir MacCrain was said to have kept 180 Christmases in his own house as he stood against religious persecution during the witch hunts of Scotland Gillouir's descendants were celebrated pioneers in America but Nathan knew none of this Nathan was orphaned at 2 in Florida during the Second Seminole War the nation's largest slave uprising Evidence suggests that Nathan and his brothers were sheltered and raised by Black Seminoles The Third Seminole War brought Luraney into Nathan's life Luraney's ancestor Emanuel was 8 when he was taken captive in Ndongo Africa in 1619 and shipped across the Atlantic in a Spanish galleon that was attacked by pirates in the Caribbean Emanuel was among the captives smuggled into Jamestown the birthplace of American slavery Here Emanuel fought to save his grandson along with as many children of the other captives as he could from enslavement Nathan married Luraney as the Civil War was brewing When war broke out his unit of the Florida Coast Guard was commissioned into the Confederacy Nathan was taken prisoner in Kentucky escaped and walked home to find his family starving The toll of three wars hobbled Nathan and his descendants for three generations But Nathan also passed down skills for living off wild Florida and a Native spirit of respect for the land that endures today The Convolvulus Allen Norton, 1914 Scene Jane's house on Gramercy Park A living room with doors R and L Entrance U R Curtains U C showing an alcove which looks out on the Park Dill in velvet knickerbockers and jacket is arranging service for tea Jack a young man of twenty has entered He wears green kid gloves and a green Alpine hat to match Jack So you're getting married Dill Dill I am sir Have you any objections to offer Jack None whatever Dill But why tea at this hour It's only just past lunch Dill It's the very latest thing sir all Americans are doing it now It's to keep up with the London time sir and there it's tea time already Examines a crumpled manuscript with his back to Jack Theodore v.
