CLA Journal ,2008 Fictional Realities/real Fictions Mateusz Borowski, Malgorzata Sugiera, 2007 The collection of essays Fictional Realities Real Fictions Contemporary Theatre in Search of a New Mimetic Paradigm tackles the problem of fictionality and reality in contemporary theatre practice and playwriting It approaches this hotly debated issue in a larger context of the theories of theatrical and dramatic mimesis The volume provides an answer to the most recent developments in performative arts such as the widespread use of new media technologies the popularity of site specific productions and the flourishing of various post dramatic forms of expression The phenomena scrutinized in this collection call into question the basic dichotomy between the fictional and the real on which the theory and practice of the Western theatre has been based right from its inception However due to their extremely heterogeneous character they pose a considerable problem for researchers and teachers who still do not find a widely applicable methodology for the analysis of contemporary performances and texts for the theatre Fictional Realities Real Fictions sets the discussion of the onset of new mimetic paradigm in three interrelated contexts the new perceptual patterns forged by contemporary theatre the use of media on stage and the strategies of today TM s political theatre The case studies presented here in spite of their thematic diversity are subordinated to a single theoretical framework Thus they turn out extremely useful both for the scholars investigating the problems of contemporary theatre and students of theatre and drama Fictional Realities Real Fictions offers them a rigid methodological scaffolding supported by a number of illustrative examples from a variety of cultural context and theatre traditions which gives them an opportunity to extrapolate from the main argument of the volume to their own research
