Adrift Blue Ocean Meadows:

Adrift Blue Ocean Meadows Rebecca Yvonne Brown,2003-10-14 On a hilltop overlooking Elizabeth Bay stood a weather beaten brick house with missing shutters and mossy stone steps The Gainers had lived there for generations and were no strangers to the way of life Three generations of sailors and whalers had their share of hardships and danger George Gainer unlike his father and grandfather loved the open sea despite all their warnings He would trade everything to just spend one day on a great sailing vessel even if it had to be against his father s wishes and he did But would he live to tell about it In 1954 Hurricane Hazel left in its wake devastation and despair off the shores of Virginia but she left something more Just to stand on the decks of a once great sailing vessel was enough to satisfy George and his friends for a lifetime
