Cosmic Canticle:

Cosmic Canticle Ernesto Cardenal, 1993 In this epic poem Cardenal explores Latin American history by relating the evolution of the universe to the development of human understanding Throughout Cardenal blends the visible and the invisible science and poetry religion and nature in 43 autonomous yet integrated cantos Sandinista's Nation Stephen Henighan, 2014-05-01 How two of Latin America's greatest writers dramatized Nicaraguan nationhood before during and after the Sandinista Revolution Transversal Ecocritical Praxis Patrick D. Murphy, 2013-06-20 In Transversal Ecocritical Praxis Theoretical Arguments Literary Analysis and Cultural Critique Patrick D Murphy Ph D utilizes ecocriticism and ecofeminism to develop his concept of transversal practice an interdisciplinary combination of theory and applied criticism He begins by explaining the necessity for cutting across disciplinary boundaries of all kinds in order to address the ecological dimensions of culture and literature The dialogical foundation of this orientation is elaborated through a consideration of the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin particularly in terms of the ethical responsibilities of the reader and critic Murphy then takes up issues of identity and subject formation in relation to genetics embodiment and selfhood These same issues play out in the history of the aesthetic category of the sublime which the author critiques from an ecofeminist perspective Following that he turns attention to cultural issues of consumption both at home and internationally looking particularly at postcolonial literature and forms of resistance to globalizations and agricultural land grabs Resistance and postcolonial literature is further analyzed through consideration of two book length Latin American poetic sequences one by Pablo Neruda and the other by Ernesto Cardenal Switching from works focused on the present Murphy turns his attention then to how these themes play out in the future oriented worlds of science fiction He concludes with two chapters that combine ecocritical cultural critique and economic analysis in studies of the destructive role of megadams particularly in Asia and the impact of the combined threats of peak oil and climate change on one island's tourist economy The conclusion contains a discussion of further drivers of future ecocritical analysis Traversing a wide range of examples literary cultural and economic this work fleshes out the benefits of an ethically grounded interdisciplinary ecocriticism Mother Tongue Theologies Darren J. N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West Subverting Scriptures B.

Sins of the Spirit, Blessings of the Flesh Matthew Fox,1999 In Sins of the Spirit Blessings of the Flesh visionary theologian and best selling author Matthew Fox offers a new theology that fundamentally changes the traditional perception of good and evil and points the way to a more enlightened treatment of ourselves one another and all of nature Through its marriage of spirit and flesh Fox's Theology of Spirit sets forth a visionary but practical mysticism that lays out a blueprint for social transformation In this book Matthew Fox dissects the roots of our culture's spiritual malaise and offers Creation Spirituality and a Theology of Spirit as the medicine for our society's deep spiritual wounds He shows how contrary to mainstream church teachings flesh is the grounding of spirit and how spirit and flesh are entwined with each other in a felicitous and spiritually nourishing bond He outlines a Theology of Spirit an approach to the fusing of spirit and flesh which has been underdeveloped in Western thought His cosmology stresses the need for diversity the revelatory power of Nature and the imperative of cooperation Fox draws together the wisdom of East and West on the subject of human destructiveness by taking Thomas Aquinas's definition of sin as misdirected love and ushering us through parallels between the Eastern teachings of the seven chakras and the Western teachings of the seven capital sins In doing so he responds to Martin Buber's call to deprive evil of its power not by extirpating the evil urge but by reuniting it to the good Psychologist M Scott Peck has said that humanity's naming of evil is still in the primitive stage With this book Fox ushers us beyond rudimentary naming and places our capacity for evil in the fuller context of our touching the natural beauty of our physical world the complex texture of our emotional lives and the splendid depths of our spiritual center In Sins of the Spirit Blessings of the Flesh Matthew Fox has created his most ambitious and profound book The text crackles with his intelligence and wit deftly moving the reader into an examination of our world and our perceptions about it and ourselves expanding our minds and showing us paths of thought that you would swear were not there before you turned the page
