study of the text A Companion to the Works of Stefan George Jens Rieckmann, 2005 Stefan George 1868 1933 is along with Hugo von Hofmannsthal and Rainer Maria Rilke one of the pre eminent German poets of the twentieth century He also had an important albeit controversial and provocative role in German cultural history It is generally agreed that he played a significant part in the transition of German literature to Modernism particularly in poetry At the same time he was an outspoken critic of modernity He believed that only an all encompassing cultural renewal could save modern man Although George is often linked with the l art pour l art movement and although his artistic consciousness was formed by European aestheticism his poetry and the writings that emerged from the poets and intellectuals he gathered around him in the George Circle are above all a scathing commentary on the political social and cultural situation in Germany at the turn of the century George who was imbued with the idea of the poet as a prophet and priest saw himself as the Messiah of a New Hellenism and a New Reich led by an intellectual and aesthetic elite consisting of men who were bonded together through their allegiance to a charismatic leader Some of the values that George proclaimed among them a glorification of power of heroism and self sacrifice were seized upon by the National Socialists and subsequently his writings and those of his circle were considered by some to be proto fascist It did not help his reputation that after the Second World War much of the criticism of his works was practiced by uncritical hagiographic George worshippers In recent years however there has been a renewed and unbiased interest among scholars and critics in George and his circle The wide ranging and original essays in this volume explore anew George s poetry and his contribution to Modernism the relation between his vision of a New Reich and fascist ideology and his importance as a cultural critic Jens Rieckmann is Professor of German at the University of California Irvine
