For the MASSACHUSETTS SPY.

Mr. THOMAS,

You are requested to publish the following Address of th[e]
Africans, to the Council and house of Representative[s].

To the honourable his Majesty's Council and the honourable House of Representatives of the Province of Massachuset[ts] Bay, in General Court assembled, at Boston, the   th day of January, 1774.

THE many stedfast resolutions made by this large p[ro]- vince, to maintain their liberties and privileges, wherewith GOD hath made them free (without which no man, even the meanest of them can be happy in this life, for what i[s] life without the enjoyment of it?) gives us who are un-happily, and unjustly deprived of that blessing, so great [ex]- pectations of your taking up our last petition which we [laid] before your Honours the last sessions; and give us the thousands of poor unhappy Africans their freedom, which we a[s] men, and by nature have a right to demand of your Hono[urs] in such a way, and in such a manner as your Honours wo[uld] expect from such a body of fellowmen, professing the gosp[el] of our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST; we ask nothi[ng] from your Honours but what you would desire yourselv[es], were you in our situation: Nay even tho' very dumb beas[ts] groan under the heavy load of slavery, and try all manner of ways to get rid of it; much more men who are made after the image of GOD, and have the sense of feeling, cannot but groan under this unjust burden laid upon [us] without any colour of justice, but pleasure and custom, and against the wills or consents of our forefathers, or us the[ir] children: But since the all-wise GOD hath seen fit to [per]- mit it to be so for a number of years past, his will be do[ne], we desire to submit to his will in all things; yet from [the] first settling of this province it was not so. But yet [we] can sincerely hope and pray, that GOD would preserve y[our] liberties and privileges as at the beginning, and that p[eace] and love may again be restored between the mother coun[try] and the provinces, and that his Majesty would bear y[our] prayers, and that you would hear ours, and grant u[s an] answer of peace, that we may rejoice when you rejoice, well as mourn when you mourn, as we do this day [and] as we are not void of fellow-feeling, we conclude we [must] be men.
