Apuleius Apuleius (Madaurensis.), 1992 Apuleius and Africa Benjamin Todd Lee, Ellen Finkelpearl, Luca Graverini, 2014-05-09 The Metamorphoses or Golden Ass of Apuleius ca 170 CE is a Latin novel written by a native of Madauros in Roman North Africa roughly equal to modern Tunisia together with parts of Libya and Algeria Apuleius novel is based on the model of a lost Greek novel it narrates the adventures of a Greek character with a Roman name who spends the bulk of the novel transformed into an animal traveling from Greece to Rome only to end his adventures in the capital city of the empire as a priest of the Egyptian goddess Isis Apuleius Florida and Apology deal more explicitly with the African provenance and character of their author while also demonstrating his complex interaction with Greek Roman and local cultures Apuleius philosophical works raise other questions about Greek vs African and Roman cultural identity Apuleius in Africa addresses the problem of this intricate complex of different identities and its connection to Apuleius literary production It especially emphasizes Apuleius African heritage a heritage that has for the most part been either downplayed or even deplored by previous scholarship The contributors include philologists historians and experts in material culture among them are some of the most respected scholars in their fields The chapters give due attention to all elements of Apuleius oeuvre and break new ground both on the interpretation of Apuleius literary production and on the culture of the Roman Empire in the second century The volume also includes a modern sub Saharan contribution in which Africa mainly means Mediterranean Africa

Seeing Tongues, Hearing Scripts Victoria Rimell,2007-06-01 The Greek and Roman novels can be seen as an important transitional moment in the trajectory from performance to reading from oralism to textuality that has underpinned the history of discourse in European consciousness since the 5th century BC In different and intriguing ways they explore the contrast tension conflict competition or dialogue between modes of discourse which frame the novel s concern with identity and self fashioning as well as advertising innovation more generally This volume brings together an international group of scholars interested in ancient and modern constructions of orality and writing and how they are reflected and manipulated in the ancient novel The essays deal not only with questions of genre oral poetics and traditions but also with how various ways of pitting or collapsing modes of representation can become loaded articulations of wider world views of cultural literary epistemological anxieties and aspirations The contributors focus in particular on issues surrounding theatricality gender identity rhetorical performance epistolarity monumentality and power in the ancient novel

Roman Literary Cultures Alison Keith,Jonathan Edmondson,2016-06-16 Drawing on the historicizing turn in Latin literary scholarship Roman Literary Cultures combines new critical methods with traditional analysis across four hundred years of Latin literature from mid republican Rome in the second century BC to the Second Sophistic in the second century AD The contributors explore Latin texts both famous and obscure from Roman drama and Menippean satire through Latin elegies epics and novels to letters issued by Roman emperors and compilations of laws

Each of the essays in this volume combines close reading of Latin literary texts with historical and cultural contextualization making the collection an accessible and engaging combination of formalist criticism and historicist exegesis that attends to the many ways in which classical Latin literature participated in ancient Roman civic debates A Commentary on

Pausanias, 1898 Latin Lineages Regine May, Catherine Conybeare, 2025-12-04 This book traces lineages of intertextuality and reception between Latin poets of the first century BC with prose authors of the second century BC and their later reception in English literature The authors of each chapter explore how writers like Catullus or Vergil Horace or Apuleius engage intertextually with each other and are themselves subject to the reception of later periods Recurring strands like a focus on philosophy notably Epicureanism and history notably Roman history and gender politics can be traced into more modern periods where authors as distinctive as Alexander Pope Italian fascists or queer adaptors of Latin poetry continue to explore the same challenges as their Roman ancestors by returning again and again to these ancient texts and similar themes of reception Its readers will be able to track recurring themes through Latin authors who read their predecessors and are themselves objects of reception from antiquity to the modern world While each chapter is a standalone study of a specific Latin author the book showcases the shapes and forms in which reception can be studied ranging from close intertextual readings and learned allusions to playful creative engagements with and homages to these Roman authors
