Arab Painting:

Arab Painting Anna Contadini, 2007 Arab painting is treated here as a significant artistic corpus in its own right Rejecting the traditional emphasis on individual paintings the distinguished contributors to this volume stress the integration of text and image as a more productive theoretical framework

Arab Painting Anna Contadini, 2010 Arab painting preserved mainly in manuscript illustrations of the 12th to 14th centuries is here treated as an artistic corpus fully deserving of appreciation in its own terms and not as a mere precursor to Persian painting The book assembles papers by a distinguished list of scholars that illuminate the variety of material that survives in scientific as well as literary manuscripts Because of the contexts in which the paintings appear a major theoretical concern is precisely the relationship of painting to text It rejects earlier scholarly habits of analysing paintings in isolation and proposes the integration of text and image as a more satisfactory framework within which to elucidate the characteristics and functions of this impressive body of work This second revised edition includes addenda and corrigenda
