Arab Voices in Diaspora, 2009-01-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayez Suyoufie Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab Literature Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora s relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East

The Arab Writer in English Geoffrey Nash, 2014-11-19 Examines the English writings of four twentieth century Anglo Arab and Arab American writers American Arabesque Jacob Rama Berman, 2012-06-11 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series American Arabesque examines representations of Arabs Islam and the Near East in nineteenth century

American culture arguing that these representations play a significant role in the development of American national identity over the century revealing largely unexplored exchanges between these two cultural traditions that will alter how we understand them today Moving from the period of America s engagement in the Barbary Wars through the Holy Land travel mania in the years of Jacksonian expansion and into the writings of romantics such as Edgar Allen Poe the book argues that not only were Arabs and Muslims prominently featured in nineteenth century literature but that the differences writers established between figures such as Moors Bedouins Turks and Orientals provide proof of the transnational scope of domestic racial politics Drawing on both English and Arabic language sources Berman contends that the fluidity and instability of the term Arab as it appears in captivity narratives travel narratives imaginative literature and ethnic literature simultaneously instantiate and undermine definitions of the American nation and American citizenship Universal

Localities Galin Tihanov,2022-07-02 The volume features the work of leading scholars from the US UK Germany China Spain and Russia and presents an important contribution to current debates on world literature The contributions discuss various facets of the historically changing role and status of language in the construction of notions of universality and locality of difference foreignness and openness they explore the relationship between world literature and bilingualism supranational languages dialects and linguistic inbetweenness They also examine the larger social and political stakes behind both foundational and more recent attempts to articulate ideas of world literature Mapping the space between philology anthropology and ecohumanities the essays in this volume approach world literature with sophisticated methodological toolkits and open up new opportunities for engaging with this important discursive framework Literature of Travel and

Voices of Exiles Ami Elad, 2007 Al Tayyib Salih is not merely another writer in the Arab world or in exile The fact that he is a Sudanese author who has spent more years of his life in the West than in the Arab world and who writes in Arabic transforms his literary work into a special phenomenon Although very few of his writings have been published these have been sufficient to make his name known as a prominent voice of an Arab novelist and short story writer Today he is a distinguished writer of modern Arabic literature The importance of this book derives from the fact that al Tayyib Salih deals primarily with a crucial theme in modern Arabic literature the clash between Eastern and Western cultures and sheds an interesting light on this conflict He is aware of the importance of the questions he raises and pursues them because they are at the core of the issue of modernity The question of individual and collective identity during a time of change is therefore a major issue in al Tayyib Salih's work as well as in the work of other prominent Arab authors al Tayyib Salih's uniqueness is evident in the poetic style of his writing in which he combines elements of classical Arabic literature with modern Western literature especially of the English tradition Although it is difficult to pinpoint a reason for his success perhaps the key to understanding the work of al al Tayyib Salih is in its simplicity In poetic terms his literary devices in addition to his usage of various writing techniques are very diverse A prime example of this is the way the author chooses to shape his characters making impressive repeated use of the same characters in a number of his works changing their significance status and centrality thus interconnecting them into a single corpus These poetic elements in addition to the variety of themes raise the standard of writing to the level of poetry on the one hand while giving the reader a sense of his mythical and magical world on the other A Community of Many Worlds The Museum of the City of New York, 2002-06 New York City's main Arab communities exemplify the continuity and change that has taken place throughout the city's rich history The Museum of the City of New York in partnership with the Middle East Institute at Columbia University and a group of local Arab and non Arab scholars activists and educators undertook a long overdue exploration of New York's Arab populations The result is a revealing collection of writings and photographs that document and tell the stories of these communities
