Arab-Jewish Relations From Conflict To Reconciliation:

Arab-Jewish Relations (HB @ PB Price) Elie Podeh, Professor Elie Podeh, Asher Kaufman, 2005-11-14 Distinguished American Canadian Palestinian and Israeli contributors illuminate the building blocks on the possible path from conflict to reconciliation between Jews and Arabs Arab Jewish Relations From Conflict to Resolution is divided into three parts Part I looks at the Arab Jewish conflict from early Zionism to the 1967 Arab Israeli War Part II focuses on Israel's relations with its neighboring countries Syria and Lebanon and Part III is concerned with the peace process its dynamics and the missed opportunities for peace between Israelis and Palestinians This festschrift honoring Professor Moshe Ma'oz a leading scholar who has held positions at Hebrew University the Middle East Institute Harvard University the Brookings Institution the Wilson Center and the United States Institute of Peace includes articles examining the Arab Jewish conflict over land during the Mandate period 19th century Jerusalem the legacy of the Oslo peace process and Israeli-Iraqi relations The Political Economy of Transitions to Peace Galia Press-Barnathan, 2009-07-05 Much attention has focused on the ongoing role of economics in the prevention of armed conflict and the deterioration of relations In The Political Economy of Transitions to Peace Galia Press Barnathan focuses on the importance of economics in initiating and sustaining peaceful relations after conflict Press Barnathan provides in depth case studies of several key relationships in the post World War II era Israel and Egypt Israel and Jordan Japan the Philippines and Indonesia Japan and South Korea Germany and France and Germany and Poland She creates an analytical framework through which to view each of these cases based on three factors the domestic balance between winners and losers from transition to peace the economic disparity between former enemies and the impact of third parties on stimulating new cooperative economic initiatives Her approach provides both a regional and cross regional comparative analysis of the degree of success in maintaining and advancing peace of the challenges faced by many nations in negotiating peace after conflict and of the unique role of economic factors in this highly political process Press Barnathan employs both liberal and realist theory to examine the motivations of these states and the societies they represent She also weighs their power relations to see how these factor into economic interdependence and the peace process She reveals the predominant role of the state and big business in the initial transition phase cold peace but also identifies an equally vital need for a subsequent broader societal coalition in the second normalizing phase warm peace Both levels of engagement Press Barnathan argues are essential to a durable peace Finally she points to the complex role that third parties can play in these transitions and the limited long term impact of direct economic side payments to the parties Intractable Conflicts Daniel Bar-Tal, 2013-03-18 This book provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary original and holistic analysis of the socio-psychological dynamics of intractable conflicts Daniel Bar-Tal's analysis rests on the premise that intractable conflicts share certain socio-psychological foundations despite differences in context and other characteristics He describes a full cycle of intractable conflicts their outbreak escalation and reconciliation through peace building Reconciling Enemy States in

Jews and Arabs in Israel Encountering Their Identities Maya Kahanoff, 2016-04-13 Jews and Arabs in Israel Encountering their Identities reveals the powerful potential of inter group dialogues to transform identities and mutually negating relations Using meetings with Israeli Jewish and Palestinian Arabian students who attend the Hebrew University of Jerusalem as case studies Kahanoff examines the hidden psychological dimensions of the Israeli Palestinian conflict and illustrates how each participant s sense of identity shifted in response to encounters with conflicting perspectives Kahanoff contends that an awareness of the limitations of dialogue without the renunciation of its value is the most realistic basis upon which to build a sustainable agreement This book is recommended for scholars of psychology sociology religious studies political science and communication studies

Pathways of Reconciliation Clara Hecht, 2020 Efforts working toward a peace process in the Arab Israeli conflict have become increasingly fruitless continually resulting in political gridlock and doing little to heal a deeply conflicted and divided society This report demonstrates the necessity of promoting a process of reconciliation rather than focusing on a top down political resolution in order to address social and psychological barriers to coexistence that exist among Jews and Arabs living in Israel The first half of this report discusses intergroup contact theory as a means to conflict reconciliation which acts as the theoretical foundation for encounter organizations The second half provides an in depth analysis of two unique present day encounter organizations in Israel Hand in Hand a network of schools seeking to foster Arab Jewish relations through shared bilingual education and Sadaka Reut an Arab Jewish youth partnership organization working toward a binational society Both organizations are evaluated based on the extent to which they meet five conditions associated with productive encounters Recommendations for organizational improvement are made based on each case study s evaluation
