Archaeological Laboratory Methods Mark Q. Sutton, Brooke S. Arkush, 2009 Laboratory Methods An Introduction
Practical Archaeology Brian D. Dillon, 1993-12-31 Useful and instructive papers advocating the value of practical considerations in the field addressing common problems from the real world of archaeology and proposing real solutions that have proven successful through trial and error Includes papers on the chemical reduction of clay matrices methods of establishing precise provenience in archaeological excavations surface collecting with the aid of transits simplified mapping techniques the use of X rays in artifact analysis archaeological surveying from muleback choosing and maintaining an archaeological field vehicle and the use of small boats in archaeological investigations Archaeological Laboratory Methods Mark Q. Sutton, 1996 Archaeological Laboratory Techniques Herbert L. Alexander, 1975 Fundamental Archaeological Concepts R. Lee Lyman, 2026-01-08 A much needed deep dive into some of the main concepts of archaeology offering a comprehensive explanation and definition of commonly used terms Cultural Resources Archaeology Thomas W. Neumann, Robert M. Sanford, Karen G. Harry, 2010 This textbook introduces archaeology students to the field of cultural resources archaeology Soils in Archaeological Research Vance T. Holliday, 2004-08-19 Soils invaluable indicators of the nature and history of the physical and human landscape have strongly influenced the cultural record left to archaeologists Not only are they primary reservoirs for artifacts they often encase entire sites And soil forming processes in themselves are an important component of site formation influencing which artifacts features and environmental indicators floral faunal and geological will be destroyed and to what extent and which will be preserved and how well In this book Holliday will address each of these issues in terms of fundamentals as well as in field case histories from all over the world The focus will be on principles of soil geomorphology soil stratigraphy and soil chemistry and their applications in archaeological research Archaeology of Bandelier National Monument Timothy A. Kohler, 2004-05 These essays summarize the results of new excavation and survey research at Bandelier National Monument with special attention to determining why larger sites appear when and where they do and how life in these later villages and towns differed from life in the earlier small hamlets that first dotted the Pajarito in the mid 1100s Archaeological Activities Jack W. Papke, 1995 Archaeological Fieldwork and Opportunities Bulletin, 2003 Prehistoric Projectile Points Found Along the Atlantic Coastal Plain Wm Jack Hranicky, 2011 This publication was written to provide a source for archaeological projectile point typology for a region of the U S that over the years has been traditionally divided into Northeast culture area Middle Atlantic culture area Southeastern culture area These divisions are based primarily on lithic technology and settlement patterns While this focus tends to serve archaeological investigations most of the prehistoric Indian habitation occupation requires greater definition and appraisal from other sources within the archaeological community Even among artifact collectors

there is a tendency to parcel these areas into the classic culture area concepts This publication makes no attempts to refocus archaeology but to show the vast overlaps of numerous point technologies This is especially true over time so that for lithic point technology in general there is a Panindian focus that can be applied to almost every tool type along the Atlantic Coast This publication provides most of the published types from along the Atlantic seaboard Each type has a basic description and the illustration is an ideal point for that type A set of point references is provided these make excellent and needed sources for the study of projectile point studies
