A Bittersweet Land Herman Ganzevoort,1982 The First Dutch Settlement in Alberta Donald W. Sinnema,2005
Translated from Dutch to English this collection of letters offers a unique perspective on the early pioneer years of the Dutch community in southeastern Alberta The letters provide first hand accounts of the preparations to immigrate the hardships of the pioneer years and the transformation from the most basic homesteading conditions to progressive rural communities including the towns of Granum Monarch and Nobleford In fact within just a decade new railroads towns churches schools and even telephone service had been established Based on extensive research the book also includes maps archival photographs and an appendix listing all the Dutch settlers in the region between the years of 1903 and 1914 The First Dutch Settlement in Alberta is an invaluable and fascinating collection of primary source material that offers a wealth of information for genealogists and historians and celebrates the pioneering spirit of Alberta s early Dutch community

Migrant Letters Marcelo J. Borges,Sonia Cancian,2019-10-23 The migrant letter whether written by family members lovers friends or others is a document that continues to attract the attention of scholars and general readers alike What is it about migrant letters that fascinates us Is it nostalgia for a distant yet desired past Is it the consequence of the eclipse of letter writing in an age of digital communication technologies Or is it about the parallels between transnational experiences in previous mass migrations and in the current globalized world and the centrality of interpersonal relations mobility and communication then and now Influenced by methodologies from diverse disciplines the study of migrant letters has developed in myriad directions Scholars have examined migrant letters through such lenses as identity and self making family relations gender and emotions This volume contributes to this discussion by exploring the connection between the practice of letter writing and the emotional economic familial and gendered experiences of men and women separated by migration It combines theoretical and empirical discussions which illuminate a variety of historical experiences of migrants who built transnational lives as they moved across Europe Africa Latin America and the United States This volume was originally published as a special issue of The History of Family

Farming in a Global Economy Frans Schryer,2006-06-01 Using a Canadian case study this book demonstrates that Dutch immigrant farmers have a global competitive advantage It also deals with the implications both beneficial and harmful of positive stereotyping in this case the reputation of the Dutch as successful farmers Farming in a Global Economy consists of three parts The first provides an overview of farming and migration in the Netherlands and Ontario Part two deals with Dutch farmers in Ontario from a historical and a sociological perspective telling the story of postwar farm immigrants much of it in their own words The last

From "melting Pot" to Multiculturalism Comitato italiano per la storia nordamericana,1990

Morsels in the Melting Pot George Harinck,Hans Krabbendam,2006 The Dutch presence in North America has been best preserved in the two largest denominations the Reformed Church and Christian Reformed Church But outside these denominations seven more developed over time of which some are hardly visible for outsiders and also non protestant groups tried to stay together The eighteen essays in this volume describe the ways in which small groups of Dutch immigrants made efforts to maintain their identities in the United States and Canada between 1800 and 2000 Until now many of those groups had never been objects of academic research In the essays presented here the Dutch American and Canadian authors zoom in on the connections of these groups with the Netherlands with other Dutch Americans and other ethnic groups All of them faced the issues of language and education Canadian Journal of Netherlandic Studies ,1999 Gatekeepers Franca Iacovetta,2006 An in depth study of European immigrants to Canada during the Cold War Gatekeepers explores the interactions among these immigrants and the gatekeepers mostly middle class individuals and institutions whose definitions of citizenship significantly shaped the immigrant experience Iacovetta s deft discussion examines how dominant bourgeois gender and Cold War ideologies of the day shaped attitudes towards new Canadians She shows how the new comers themselves were significant actors who influenced Canadian culture and society even as their own behaviour was being modified Generously illustrated Gatekeepers explores a side of Cold War history that has been left largely untapped It offers a long overdue Canadian perspective on one of the defining eras of the last century Click the Review Quote link below to read reviews and endorsements of Gatekeepers Ontario History ,1998 Connecting Cultures Hans Bak,1994 Zeven essays over migratie overtocht en vestiging in de Verenigde Staten met aandacht voor de assimilatie van Nederlandse vrouwen gevolgd door zeven essays over intellectuele en culturele uitwisseling tussen beide landen A Sharing of Diversities Jewish Mennonite Ukrainian Committee,1999 Publications Récentes Subventionnées Par Multiculturalisme Et Citoyenneté Canada Canada.
