Global Gentrifications Lees, Loretta, Shin, Hyun Bang, Ernesto López Morales, 2015-01-26 This comprehensive book uses a rich array of case studies from cities in Asia Latin America Africa Southern Europe and beyond to highlight the intensifying global struggle over urban space and underline gentrification as a growing and important battleground in the contemporary world "ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man, Tina

Juki, 2016-06-02 The Routledge Handbook of Environmental Justice Ryan Holifield, Jayajit Chakraborty, Gordon Walker, 2017-09-14 The Routledge Handbook of Environmental Justice presents an extensive and cutting edge introduction to the diverse rapidly growing body of research on pressing issues of environmental justice and injustice With wide ranging discussion of current debates controversies and questions in the history theory and methods of environmental justice research contributed by over 90 leading social scientists natural scientists humanists and scholars from professional disciplines from six continents it is an essential resource both for newcomers to this research and for experienced scholars and practitioners The chapters of this volume examine the roots of environmental justice activism lay out and assess key theories and approaches and consider the many different substantive issues that have been the subject of activism empirical research and policy development throughout the world The Handbook features critical reviews of quantitative qualitative and mixed methodological approaches and explicitly addresses interdisciplinarity transdisciplinarity and engaged research Instead of adopting a narrow regional focus it tackles substantive issues and presents perspectives from political and cultural systems across the world as well as addressing activism for environmental justice at the global scale Its chapters do not simply review the state of the art but also propose new conceptual frameworks and directions for research policy and practice Providing detailed but accessible overviews of the complex varied dimensions of environmental justice and injustice the Handbook is an essential guide and reference not only for researchers engaged with environmental justice but also for undergraduate and graduate teaching and for policymakers and activists Current Geographical Publications

University of Wisconsin--Milwaukee. Library, 2003 Current Geographical Publications CGP is a non profit service to the scholarly community initiated in 1938 by the American Geographical Society of New York Beginning in 2006 the format changed to include the tables of contents of current geographical journals The journal titles listed link to web pages or PDF scans of the current issue s contents The Naqab Bedouin and Colonialism Mansour Nasasra, Sophie Richter-Devroe, Sarab Abu-Rabia-Queder, Richard Ratcliffe, 2014-08-13 The Naqab Bedouin and Colonialism brings together new scholarship to challenge perceived paradigms often dominated by orientalist modernist or developmentalist assumptions on the Naqab Bedouin The past decade has witnessed a change in both the wider knowledge production on and political profile of the Naqab Bedouin This book addresses this change by firstly endeavouring to overcome the historic isolation of Naqab Bedouin studies from the rest of Palestine studies by situating studying and analyzing their predicaments firmly within the contemporary context of Israeli settler colonial policies Secondly it strives to de colonise research and advocacy on the Naqab Bedouin by for example reclaiming indigenous knowledge and terminology Offering not only a nuanced description and analysis of Naqab Bedouin agency and activism but also trying to draw broader conclusion as to the functioning of settler colonial power structures as well as to the politics of research in such a context this book is essential reading for students and researchers with an interest in Postcolonial Studies Development Studies Israel Palestine Studies and the contemporary Middle East more broadly

Advances in Waste-to-Energy Technologies Rajeev Singh, Vishal Prasad, Barkha Vaish, 2019-11-14 As global populations continue to increase the application of biotechnological processes for disposal and control of waste has gained importance in recent years Advances in Waste to Energy Technologies presents the latest developments in the areas of solid waste management Waste to Energy WTE technologies biotechnological approaches and their global challenges It combines biotechnological procedures sophisticated modeling and techno economic analysis of waste and examines the current need for the maximum recovery of energy from wastes as well as the associated biotechnological and environmental impacts Features Presents numerous waste management practices and methods to recover resources from waste using the best biotechnological approaches available Addresses the challenges management and policy issues of waste management and WTE initiatives Includes practical case studies from around the world Serves as a useful resource for professionals and students involved in cross disciplinary and trans disciplinary research programs and related courses Discusses the economic and regulatory contexts for managing waste This book will serve as a valuable reference for researchers academicians municipal authorities government bodies waste managers building engineers and environmental consultants requiring an understanding of waste management and the latest WTE technologies

Organising Waste in the City Zapata, María José, Hall, Michael, 2013-05-30 This book offers a critical perspective on the issue of organising waste in cities which has often been positioned in terms of relatively narrow engineering economic and physical science approaches It emphasises the ways in which the notion of waste and the narratives and discourses associated with it have been socially constructed with corresponding implications for waste governance and local waste handling practices Organising waste in the city takes a broad and international approach to the ways in which the issue of waste is framed and brings together narratives from cities as diverse as Amsterdam Bristol Cairo Gothenburg Helsingborg and Managua Organised into four main sections and with an integrative introduction and conclusion the book not only provides new insights into the hidden stories of urban and municipal household solid waste and waste landscapes but also connects concerns regarding urban waste to such issues as globalisation governance urban ecology and social economic and environmental justice
