Birth of Broadcasting (history of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom Vol 1). Bib A. BRIGGS, 1961

Making News Richard R. John, Jonathan Silberstein-Loeb, 2015 This book charts the rise and fall of the newspaper as the primary medium for the conveyance of news The book focuses on two of the most influential media markets in the modern world Great Britain and the United States between 1688 and 1995 In 1688 Parliament created institutional arrangements that would hasten the rise of the newspaper as the dominant medium for the circulation of news In 1995 the National Science Foundation commercialized the Internet encouraging an astonishing proliferation of information on all manner of topics including the news Per capita newspaper circulation had been declining for decades partly due to shifting social norms and partly due to the rise of broadcast news The Internet exacerbated this trend partly because it provided a cheaper news source and partly because it quickly became a superior vehicle for advertising a major source of revenue for newspaper publishers for over two hundred years However only rarely has advertising revenue and direct sales covered costs Almost never has the demand for news generated the revenue necessary for its supply Non market institutional arrangements have ranged from direct government subsidies to organizational forms that enabled news organizations to cooperate From a historical perspective the large profits reaped by a handful of newspaper publishers in the post Second World War era were anomalous and in no sense a baseline for public policy Never again will the newspaper be the dominant news medium To guarantee an informed citizenry in the future it is necessary to understand how the news business worked in the past This book is organized around eight essays each written by a distinguished specialist and each explicitly comparative Its theme is the indispensability in both Great Britain and the United States of non market institutional arrangements in the provisioning of news Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2006 BBC Annual Report and Handbook ,1969 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1977 Crossing the Ether Sean Street,2006 Accompanying CD contains archival audio examples Complete listing on p 292 The Palgrave Handbook of Music and Sound in Japanese Animation Marco Pellitteri,2024-09-13 This handbook fills a substantial gap in the international academic literature on animation at large on music studies and on the aural dimensions of Japanese animation more specifically It offers a unique contribution at the intersection between music and popular culture studies on the one hand and research on Japanese animated productions often called anime as popular art forms and formats of entertainment on the other The book is designed as a reference work consisting of an organic sequence of theory grounded essays on the development of music sounds and voices in Japanese animation for cinema and television since the 1930s Each chapter deals with a phase of this history focusing on composers and performers films series and genres used in the soundtracks for animations made in Japan The chapters also offer valuable interviews with prominent figures of music in Japanese animation as well as chapter boxes clarifying specific aspects British Books ,1961 A History of Broadcasting in the United States Erik Barnouw,1966-12-31 Tells how radio and television became an integral part of American life of how a toy became an industry and a force in politics business education religion and international affairs Books in Print ,1977 The Malthusian. [Vol.1, no.1 is of the 2nd ed.]. [Continued as] The New generation. [Continued as] The Malthusian. N.S. Malthusian league,1879 The History of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom: Volume I: The Birth of Broadcasting Asa Briggs,1995-03-23 This is the first of a five volume history of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom The Birth of Broadcasting covers early amateur experiments in wireless telephony in America and in England the pioneer days at Writtle in Essex and elsewhere and the coming of organized broadcasting and its rapid growth during the first four years of the BBC s existence as a private Company before it became a public Corporation in January 1927 Briggs also considers the impact of wireless on society and he has much to say about personalities and programmes as well as Corporation policies
