Biting Talk My Autobiography:

Biting Talk Norman Hunter,2005 Hero in the Shadows David Tossell,2021-11-15 Don Howe is one of English football's great coaches with an unrivalled record at international and club level As right hand man to three England managers he helped his country to the 1990 World Cup and Euro 96 semi finals He helped to steer them through the 1982 World Cup unbeaten and to the quarter finals four years later Howe masterminded the 1970 71 double at Arsenal where two spells as coach also brought European and further FA Cup glory He was also an integral part of one of the greatest Wembley upsets when he helped Wimbledon's Crazy Gang to victory over the mighty Liverpool in 1988 As a player at West Bromwich Albion Howe won 24 international caps but as a manager he failed to achieve the success he craved Yet over a three decade period he won acclaim from many of England's finest players as a genius of the coaching profession Through interviews with players colleagues friends and family this book examines the triumphs and challenges of Don Howe's career and assesses his contribution to English football

Final Third! John Smith,2022-09-26 Final Third The Last Word on our Football Heroes serves up another batch of funny absurd and jaw dropping tales discovered within more than 300 footballer autobiographies Author John Smith has pored over the memoirs of the great and the good as well as the not so good so you don't have to You're welcome Final Third paints an intimate picture of our favourite football figures using their own stories to show what makes them tick what unites and divides them and exactly what they are prepared to share with us They've seen things you wouldn't believe The eye opening stories include a defender deliberately driving a golf ball into Jimmy Hill's house a goalkeeper confronted by a witch doctor in his penalty area one football legend asking another to scale a church tower to stop the bells ringing a manager who was like catnip to the wives of his directors and the England captain who drifted down the Thames It all adds up to a fun third volume of the definitive digest of the autobiographies of our football heroes

Natural David Tossell,2019-04-01 Jimmy Greaves remains the greatest goalscorer in English football history with 357 top flight goals although his England career was defined by the heartbreak of missing the 1966 World Cup Final After slipping into the grip of alcoholism he reinvented himself as a popular TV personality Natural is the definitive biography of a sporting legend

Second Yellow John Smith,2020-09-21 Second Yellow More Adventures of our Footballing Heroes brings you more funny fascinating and downright baffling tales gleaned by authors John Smith and Dan Trelfer from their unflagging research of over 240 footballer autobiographies Together they have pored through the works of genuine legends cult heroes and players they can only dimly recall from their 1983 Panini sticker albums to find stories and facts that will delight shock and confuse sometimes all at once There's the chairman who owned a ventriloquist's dummy called Algernon There's the Liverpool legend who set a team mate's wife's hair on fire There's the Arsenal star who confronted some innocent fans with a samurai sword And there's the Ipswich hero who took on Sylvester Stallone in an arm wrestling contest possibly inspiring Stallone's half forgotten epic Over The Top This book covers all the bases of the typical footballer's life love
