Black And Queer:

The Black Queer Work of Ratchet Nikki Lane, 2019-11-27 This book enters as a corrective to the tendency to trivialize and mis appropriate African American language practices The word ratchet has entered into a wider whiter American discourse the same way that many words in African American English have through hip hop and social media Generally ratchet refers to behaviors and cultural expressions of Black people that sit outside of normative middle class respectable codes of conduct Ratchet can function both as a tool for critiquing bad Black behavior and as a tool for resisting the notion that there are such things as good and bad behavior in the first place This book takes seriously the way ratchet operates in the everyday lives of middle class and upwardly mobile Black Queer women in Washington DC who because of their sexuality are situated outside of the norms of Black respectability The book introduces the concept of ratchet boogie cultural politics which draws from a rich body of Black intellectual traditions which interrogate the debates concerning what is and is not acceptable Black middle class behavior Placing issues of non normative sexuality at the center of the conversation about notions of propriety within normative modes of Black middle class behavior this book discusses what it means for Black Queer women s bodies to be present within ratchet boogie cultural projects asking what Black Queer women s increasing visibility does for the everyday experiences of Black queer people more broadly

Black and Queer on Campus Michael P. Jeffries, 2023-03-21 Black and Queer on Campus is a ground breaking account of queer Black experiences on college campuses based on 65 interviews with Black LGBTQ students

Black Queer Ethics, Family, and Philosophical Imagination Thelathia Nikki Young, 2016-06-06 This book acknowledges and highlights the moral excellence embedded in black queer practices of family Taking the lives narratives and creative explorations of black queer people seriously Thelathia Nikki Young brings readers on a journey of new queer ethical methods that include confrontation resistance and imagination Young asserts that family and its surrounding norms are both microcosms of and foundations for human relationships She discusses how black queer people are moral subjects whose ethical reflection lived experience and embodied action demonstrate valuable moral agency for those of us thinking about liberating and life giving ways to enact family Young posits that black queer people enact moral agency in ways that ought to be understood qua moral agency Refusing to recognize the examples from this and any other community Young argues denies us all the learning and moral growth that come from connecting with diverse human experiences This book investigates how acknowledging and critically engaging with the moral agency within marginalized subjectivities allow us to consider and bear witness to the moral potential in us all

Queer in Black and White Stefanie K. Dunning, 2009-05-12 This book analyzes representative works of African American fiction film and music in which interracial desire appears in the context of same sex desire In close readings of these texts Stefanie K Dunning explores the ways in which the interracial intersects with queerness blackness whiteness class and black national identity She shows that representations of interracial desire do not follow the logic of racial exclusion Instead they are metaphorical and anti biological Rather than diluting race interracial desire makes race visible By invoking the interracial black gay and lesbian artists can remake our conception of blackness Black. Queer. Southern. Women. E. Patrick Johnson, 2018-10-22 Drawn from the life narratives of more than seventy African American queer women who were born raised and continue to reside in the American South this book powerfully reveals the way these women experience and express racial sexual gender and class identities all linked by a place where such identities have generally placed them on the margins of society Using methods of oral history and performance ethnography E Patrick Johnson s work vividly enriches the historical record of racialized sexual minorities in the South and brings to light the realities of the region s thriving black lesbian communities At once transcendent and grounded in place and time these narratives raise important questions about queer identity formation community building and power relations as they are negotiated within the context of southern history Johnson uses individual stories to reveal the embedded political and cultural ideologies of the self but also of the listener and society as a whole These breathtakingly rich life histories show afresh how black female sexuality is and always has been an integral part of the patchwork quilt that is southern culture Black Queer Studies E. Patrick Johnson, Mae G. Henderson, 2005-11-01 A groundbreaking collection of sixteen essays that examines the productive intersection of the fields of black and queer studies

Black Queer Identity Matrix Sheena C. Howard, 2014 This volume launches the first sustained discussion of the need for a queer of color conceptual framework around Black lesbian female identity Specifically this volume addresses the necessity for a more integrated framework within queer studies in which the variables of race ethnicity are taken into consideration This book is unique in that it highlights a triple jeopardy minority group that has been historically marginalized and concludes with the proposal of a much needed framework for researchers to begin to create a baseline of knowledge research under the umbrella of the Black Queer Identity Matrix Fashioning Lives Eric Darnell Pritchard, 2016-11-01 Honorable Mention 2018 Winifred Bryan Horner Outstanding Book Award Winner Lavender Rhetorics Award for Excellence in Queer Scholarship from CCCC 2018 Winner Advancement of Knowledge Award from CCCC 2018 Winner Outstanding Book Award from the Conference on Community Writing 2017 Fashioning Lives Black Queers and the Politics of Literacy analyzes the life stories of sixty Black lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ people along with archival documents literature and film Author Eric Darnell Pritchard provides a theoretical framework for studying the literacy work of Black LGBTQ people who do not fit into the traditional categories imposed on their language practices and identities Examining the myriad ways literacy is used to inflict harm Pritchard discusses how these harmful events prompt Black LGBTQ people to ensure their own survival by repurposing literacy through literacy performances fueled by accountability to self and communal love towards social and political change a process the author calls restorative literacies Pritchard highlights restorative literacies in literacy institutions e g libraries schools historical records repositories religious and spiritual spaces parties community events activist organizations and digital spheres This trailblazing study draws connections between race and queerness in literacy composition and rhetoric and provides the basis for a sustainable dialogue on their intersections in the discipline

Black Queer Freedom GerShun Avilez, 2020-11-09 Whether engaged in same sex desire or gender nonconformity black queer individuals live with being perceived as a threat while simultaneously being subjected to the threat of physical psychological and socioeconomical injury Attending to and challenging threats has become a defining element in queer black artists work throughout the black diaspora GerShun Avilez analyzes the work of diasporic artists who denied government protections have used art to create spaces for justice He first focuses on how the state seeks to inhibit the movement of black queer bodies through public spaces whether on the street or across borders From there he pivots to institutional spaces specifically prisons and hospitals and the ways such places seek to expose queer bodies in order to control them Throughout he reveals how desire and art open routes to black queer freedom when policy the law racism and homophobia threaten physical safety civil rights and social mobility

Feels Right Kemi Adeyemi, 2022-08-29 In Feels Right Kemi Adeyemi presents an ethnography of how black queer women in Chicago use dance to assert their physical and affective rights to the city Adeyemi stages the book in queer dance parties in gentrifying neighborhoods where good feelings are good business But feeling good is elusive for black queer women whose nightlives are undercut by white people heterosexuality neoliberal capitalism burnout and other buzzkills Adeyemi documents how black queer women respond to these conditions how they destroy DJ booths argue with one another dance slowly and stop partying altogether Their practices complicate our expectations that life at night on the queer dance floor or among black queer community simply feels good Adeyemi's framework of feeling right instead offers a closer kinesthetic look at how black queer women adroitly manage feeling itself as a complex right they should be afforded in cities that violently structure their movements and energies What emerges in Feels Right is a sensorial portrait of the critical black queer geographies and collectivities that emerge in social dance settings and in the broader neoliberal city Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient

Black Queer Flesh Alvin J. Henry, 2021-01-05 A groundbreaking examination of how twentieth century African American writers use queer characters to challenge and ultimately reject subjectivity Black Queer Flesh reinterprets key African American novels from the Harlem Renaissance to Black Modernism to contemporary literature showing how authors have imagined a new model of black queer selfhood African American authors blame liberal humanism's model of subjectivity for double consciousness and find that liberal humanism's celebration of individual autonomy and agency is a way of disciplining Black queer lives These authors thus reject subjectivity in search of a new mode of the self that Alvin J Henry names black queer flesh a model of selfhood that is collective plural fluctuating and deeply connected to the black queer past Henry begins with early twentieth century authors such as Jessie Redmon Fauset and James Weldon Johnson These authors adapted the Bildungsroman the novel of self formation to show African Americans gaining freedom and agency by becoming a liberal autonomous subjects These authors however discovered that the promise of liberal autonomy held out by the

Bildungsroman was yet another tool of antiblack racism As a result they tentatively experimented with repurposing the Bildungsroman to throw off subjectivity and its attendant double consciousness In contrast Nella Larsen Henry shows was the first author to fully reject subjectivity In Quicksand and Passing Larsen invented a new genre showing her queer characters characters whose queerness already positioned them on the margins of subjectivity escaping subjectivity altogether Using Ralph Ellison s archival drafts Henry then powerfully rereads Invisible Man revealing that the protagonist as a queer disabled character taught by the novel s many other queer disabled characters to likewise seek a selfhood beyond subjectivity Although Larsen and Ellison sketch glimpses of this selfhood beyond subjectivity only Saidiya Hartman s Wayward Lives Beautiful Experiments shows a protagonist fully inhabiting black queer flesh a new mode of selfhood that is collective plural always evolving and no longer alienated from the black past Black Queer Flesh is an original and necessary contribution to black literary studies offering new ways to understand and appreciate the canonical texts and far more

Black LGBT Health in the United States Lourdes Dolores Follins,Jonathan Mathias Lassiter,2016-12-13 Black LGBT Health in the United States The Intersection of Race Gender and Sexual Orientation focuses on the mental physical and spiritual aspects of health and considers both risk and resiliency factors for the Black LGBT population Contributors to this collection intimately understand the associations between health and intersectional anti Black racism heterosexism homonegativity biphobia transphobia and social class This collection fills a gap in current scholarship by providing information about an array of health issues like cancer juvenile incarceration and depression that affect all subpopulations of Black LGBT people especially Black bisexual identified women Black bisexual identified men and Black transgender men This book is recommended for readers interested in psychology health gender studies race studies social work and sociology A Black Queer History of the United States C. Riley Snorton,Darius Bost,2026-01-20 The first ever Black history to center queer voices this landmark study traces the lives of LGBTQ Black Americans from slavery to present day Gender and sexual expression have always been part of the Black freedom struggle In this latest book in Beacon s award winning ReVisioning History series Professors C Riley Snorton and Darius Bost unearth the often overlooked history of the Black queer community in the United States Arguing that both gender and sexual expression have been an intimate and intricate part of Black freedom struggle Snorton and Bost present historical contributions of Black queer trans and gender non conforming Americans from slavery to the present day to highlight how the fight against racial injustice has always been linked to that of sexual and gender justice Interweaving stories of queer and trans figures such as Private William Cathay Cathay Williams born female but enlisted in the Army as a man in the mid 1860s Josephine Baker internationally known dancer and entertainer of the early 20th century who was also openly bisexual Bayard Rustin prominent Civil Rights activist whose well known homosexuality was viewed as a potential threat to the movement Amanda Milan a black trans woman whose murder in 2000 unified the trans people of color community this book includes a deep dive into the marginalization unjust

criminalization and government legislation of Black queer and trans existence It also shows how Black Americans have played an integral role in the modern LGBTQ rights movement countering narratives that have predominantly focused on white Americans Through storytelling and other narratives Snorton and Bost show how the Black queer community has always existed regardless of the attempts to stamp it out and how those in it continue to fight for their rightful place in the world

No Tea, No Shade E. Patrick Johnson, 2016-10-13 The follow up to the groundbreaking Black Queer Studies the edited collection No Tea No Shade brings together nineteen essays from the next generation of scholars activists and community leaders doing work on black gender and sexuality Building on the foundations laid by the earlier volume this collection s contributors speak new truths about the black queer experience while exemplifying the codification of black queer studies as a rigorous and important field of study Topics include raw sex pornography the carceral state gentrification gender nonconformity social media the relationship between black feminist studies and black trans studies the black queer experience throughout the black diaspora and queer music film dance and theater The contributors both disprove naysayers who believed black queer studies to be a passing trend and respond to critiques of the field s early U S bias Deferring to the past while pointing to the future No Tea No Shade pushes black queer studies in new and exciting directions Contributors Jafari S Allen Marlon M Bailey Zachary Shane Kalish Blair La Marr Jurelle Bruce Cathy J Cohen Jennifer DeClue Treva Ellison Lyndon K Gill Kai M Green Alexis Pauline Gumbs Kwame Holmes E Patrick Johnson Shaka McGlotten Amber Jamilla Musser Alison Reed Ram n H Rivera Servera Tanya Saunders C Riley Snorton Kaila Story Omise eke Natasha Tinsley Julia Roxanne Wallace Kortney Ziegler

Spirited G. Winston James, Lisa C. Moore, 2006 In Spirited Affirming the Soul and Black Gay Lesbian Identity more than 40 writers address the question of how we as same gender loving black people affirm ourselves as sexual and spiritual people These sacred narratives are a canon for our survival holy texts proclaiming the divinity of our lives the righteousness of our love and the sanctity of our being Spirited is a must read for those on a journey toward spiritual and self acceptance Publisher s website

Evidence of Being Darius Bost, 2018-12-21 Evidence of Being opens on a grim scene Washington DC s gay black community in the 1980s ravaged by AIDS the crack epidemic and a series of unsolved murders seemingly abandoned by the government and mainstream culture Yet in this darkest of moments a new vision of community and hope managed to emerge Darius Bost s account of the media poetry and performance of this time and place reveals a stunning confluence of activism and the arts In Washington and New York during the 1980s and 90s gay black men banded together using creative expression as a tool to challenge the widespread views that marked them as unworthy of grief They created art that enriched and reimagined their lives in the face of pain and neglect while at the same time forging a path toward bold new modes of existence At once a corrective to the predominantly white male accounts of the AIDS crisis and an openhearted depiction of the possibilities of black gay life Evidence of Being above all insists on the primacy of community over loneliness and hope over despair

Black Queer Studies E. Patrick Johnson, Mae G. Henderson, 2005-11-01

While over the past decade a number of scholars have done significant work on questions of black lesbian gay bisexual and transgendered identities this volume is the first to collect this groundbreaking work and make black queer studies visible as a developing field of study in the United States Bringing together essays by established and emergent scholars this collection assesses the strengths and weaknesses of prior work on race and sexuality and highlights the theoretical and political issues at stake in the nascent field of black queer studies Including work by scholars based in English film studies black studies sociology history political science legal studies cultural studies and performance studies the volume showcases the broadly interdisciplinary nature of the black queer studies project The contributors consider representations of the black queer body black queer literature the pedagogical implications of black queer studies and the ways that gender and sexuality have been glossed over in black studies and race and class marginalized in queer studies Whether exploring the closet as a racially loaded metaphor arguing for the inclusion of diaspora studies in black queer studies considering how the black lesbian voice that was so expressive in the 1970s and 1980s is all but inaudible today or investigating how the social sciences have solidified racial and sexual exclusionary practices these insightful essays signal an important and necessary expansion of queer studies Contributors Bryant K Alexander Devon Carbado Faedra Chatard Carpenter Keith Clark Cathy Cohen Roderick A Ferguson Jewelle Gomez Phillip Brian Harper Mae G Henderson Sharon P Holland E Patrick Johnson Kara Keeling Dwight A McBride Charles I Nero Marlon B Ross Rinaldo Walcott Maurice O Wallace Civic Intimacies Niels van Doorn, 2019-06-07 Black queer lives often exist outside conventional civic institutions and therefore have to explore alternative intimacies to experience a sense of belonging Civic Intimacies examines how and to what extent these different forms of intimacy catalyze the values aspirations and collective flourishing of Black queer denizens of Baltimore Niels van Doorn draws on 18 months of immersive ethnographic fieldwork for his innovative cross disciplinary analysis of contemporary debates in political and cultural theory Van Doorn describes the way that these systematically marginalized communities improvise on citizenship not just to survive but also to thrive despite the proliferation of violence and insecurity in their lives By reimagining citizenship as the everyday reparative work of building support structures Civic Intimacies highlights the extent to which sex kinship memory religious faith and sexual health are rooted in collective practices that are deeply political These systems sustain the lives of Black queer Baltimoreans who find themselves stuck in a city they cannot give up on even though it has in many ways given up on them Learning While Black and Queer Ed Brockenbrough, 2024-08-27 Research based guidance for educators teacher educators and community learning partners to effectively support LGBTQIA students of color In Learning While Black and Queer Ed Brockenbrough outlines common obstacles to educational equity for Black youth in the LGBTQIA community and suggests ways for educators to foster the success of Black queer students This compassionate and actionable work advances what Brockenbrough calls a queerly responsive pedagogy which addresses the nuances of LGBTQIA youths learning experiences in ways that other assets based approaches including culturally responsive and sustaining pedagogies do not Providing evidence based recommendations for creating educational spaces and school cultures that promote safety and belonging Brockenbrough draws on recent empirical studies of urban Black youths aged fourteen to twenty four who identify as LGBTQIA as well as personal accounts of Black queer individuals and his own experiences as a secondary school teacher and teacher educator Among other suggestions he advocates the adoption of a queer inclusive curriculum that covers health and sexuality queer affirming classrooms and access to peer and intergenerational kinship networks for Black queer students He implores educators to reject the deficit narrative of queer victimhood and instead cultivate youth agency He shows how Black queer resistant capital can be used to confront systemic oppressions such as anti Blackness anti queerness and cisheteronormativity in educational environments The guidance offered in this work gives educators in schools and community based organizations ways to advocate for educational and social justice with and for Black queer youth

Ezili's Mirrors Omise'eke Natasha Tinsley, 2018-01-19

From the dagger mistress Ezili Je Wouj and the gender bending mermaid Lasiren to the beautiful femme queen Ezili Freda the Ezili pantheon of Vodoun spirits represents the divine forces of love sexuality prosperity pleasure maternity creativity and fertility And just as Ezili appears in different guises and characters so too does Omise eke Natasha Tinsley in her voice and genre shifting exploratory book Ezili's Mirrors Drawing on her background as a literary critic as well as her quest to learn the lessons of her spiritual ancestors Tinsley theorizes black Atlantic sexuality by tracing how contemporary queer Caribbean and African American writers and performers evoke Ezili Tinsley shows how Ezili is manifest in the work and personal lives of singers Whitney Houston and Azealia Banks novelists Nalo Hopkinson and Ana Lara performers Mildred Gerestant and Sharon Bridgforth and filmmakers Anne Lescot and Laurence Magloire none of whom identify as Vodou practitioners In so doing Tinsley offers a model of queer black feminist theory that creates new possibilities for decolonizing queer studies
