The Fire Horse: Children's Poems by Vladimir Mayakovsky, Osip Mandelstam and Daniil Kharms Eugene Ostashevsky, 2017-03-14 Whimsical and revolutionary poems and art by some of Russia's foremost avant garde writers and illustrators A boy wants a toy horse big enough to ride but where can his father find it Not in the stores which means it's got to be built from scratch How With the help of expert workers from the carpenter to the painter working together as one And now the bold boy is ready to ride off in defense of the future Two trams Click and Zam are cousins Click goes out for a day on the tracks and before long he's so tired he doesn't know where he is or how to get back All he knows is he's got to find Zam Click is looking for Zam and Zam is looking for Click and though for a while it seems like nobody knows where to find Click good and faithful Zam is not to be deterred Peter's a car Vasco's a steamboat and Mikey's a plane They're all running like mad and going great guns until whoops there's a big old cow just a plain old cow standing in the road What then The early years of the Soviet Union were a golden age for children's literature The Fire Horse brings together three classics from the era in which some of Russia's most celebrated poets Vladimir Mayakovsky Osip Mandelstam and Daniil Kharms teamed up with some of its finest artists Lidia Popova Boris Ender and Vladimir Konashevich Brilliantly translated by the poet Eugene Ostashevsky this is poetry that is as whimsical and wonderful as it is revolutionary
