Picasso Gertje Utley, 2000-01-01 The fact that Picasso joined the French Communist Party in 1944 and remained a loyal member to the end of his long life presents puzzling contradictions How can the image of him as a protean genius be reconciled with his membership in a repressive political organization that maintained an authoritarian hold on its artistic community and all but obliterated the freedom of the creative mind How could the creator of Guernica lauded at that time as the champion of civilian victims of totalitarian aggression support the policies of the Soviet Union This stimulating book is the first comprehensive examination of Picasso's political commitment his motivations to join the French Communist Party and his contributions as an active member Gertje R Utley assesses the impact communism had on the artist's life and explores how Picasso's political beliefs and the doctrines of the Communist Party affected his artistic production Utley provides the first account in English of the intricate relations between the French Communist Party and its artists in the years immediately following the Liberation She then examines in detail the role Picasso played within the Communist agenda his financial and moral support his active participation at Party events and his artistic endorsement of the Party's most important ideological positions during the Cold War years Addressing Picasso's unflinching loyalty in the face of both the Party

Hard Back A R Grogan, 2013-11 When I was a child living in Liverpool England I often stayed with my grandparents near the docks On those long weekends they would tell me amazing stories about the Second World War My grandmother was a great storyteller sharing her memories next to the fire smoking cigarettes and constantly drinking tea and the occasional whiskey She had a way of telling a story that would pull you in and with her silhouetted against the perpetual roaring coal fire and cigarette smoke I would let my schoolchild fantasy soar These stories were often about the children in Liverpool who had been evacuated including her own children my parents or about soldiers from families she knew who had gone off to fight and had returned home with tales of their own One of the stories she told was that one day she was down on the docks of Liverpool She had gone down there because the Queen Mary Cruiser had arrived and she had never seen that famous ship When she arrived at the docks she noticed a few children from wealthy families playing on the wharf They were enjoying a moment on land before the ship sailed for the five day journey to New York These children were being evacuated but not to farmers outside the city like my parents Instead they would be whisked away by sea or air to glamorous and extravagant America As she got closer to the children my grandmother realized they were from different nationalities and was amazed how easily they jumped from one language to another They were the children of diplomats and European Royalty industrialists and the famous Even though they were young children they were used to a life that my old grandmother could only dream about Those tales rubbed off on me As a child I used to write short stories about these children how they would have adventures and as children how they could move almost unnoticed among the rich and influential of the time
