Children's Explanations A Psycholinguistic Study:

Children's Explanations Morag L. Donaldson, 1986-10-23 Children's Explanations is a book that will be of equal interest to cognitive and developmental psychologists and to psycholinguistics

A Psycholinguistic Study of Children's Explanations M. L. Donaldson, University of Edinburgh, 1983

Children's Problems in Text Comprehension Nicola Yuill, Jane Oakhill, 1991-09-19 A 1991 examination of children's comprehension abilities by Yuill and Oakhill

International Encyclopedia of Education, 2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological, societal, and institutional change in recent years, making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science. Unequaled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage, the International Encyclopedia of Education, Third Edition, succeeds two highly successful previous editions (1985, 1994) in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty-first century reader. Under development for five years, this work encompasses over 1,000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field. Education is a multidisciplinary and international field, drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines, and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity. The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework, with 1,500 contributors representing over 100 countries, capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field. A totally new work, revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta-sections and articles, developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia, the work is web-enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study. Incorporates ca. 1,350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning, demography and social change, globalization, and adult learning, to name a few. Offers two content delivery options: print and online, the latter of which provides anytime, anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect, as well as multimedia content including audio and video files.

Resources in Education, 1986

Language Development from Two to Three Lois Bloom, 1993-05-28 The studies in this book cover a range of topics in child language development, including acquisition of semantic-syntactic relations, negation, verb inflections, questions, syntactic connectives, complementation, causality, imitation, and discourse contingency. Of special interest is the development of verb subcategorization and the importance of action, locative, epistemic, and perception verbs. In particular, Language Development from Two to Three will be of interest to a range of readers in psychology, linguistics, early childhood education, speech and language pathology, and second language learning.

Pragmatic Development Anat Ninio, Catherine Snow, 2018-02-12 The pragmatic system consists of the rules for appropriate and communicatively effective language use. This book provides an integrated view of the acquisition of the various pragmatic subsystems, including expression of communicative intents, participation in conversation, and production of extended discourse. The three components of the pragmatic system are presented in a way that makes clear how they relate to each other and why they all fall under the rubric of pragmatics The authors combine their own extensive work in these three domains with an overview of the field of pragmatic development describing how linguistic pragmatics relates to other aspects of language development to social development and to becoming a member of one's culture

Talking to Adults Shoshana Blum-Kulka, Catherine E. Snow, 2002-04 The focus of this volume is on how language is used between adults and children The results is a volume that will appeal to readers in language development and narrative discourse Has the potential to become a classic graduate level text reference

Time, Action and Cognition Françoise Macar, V. Pouthas, William J. Friedman, 2013-04-17 This volume is the outcome of the NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Time Action and Cognition which was held in Saint Malo France in October 1991 The theme time in action and cognition of time was sparked by growing awareness in informal meetings between mostly French speaking time psychologists of the need to bring together time specialists in the areas of development motor behavior attention memory and representations The workshop was designed to be a forum where different theoretical points of view and a variety of empirical approaches could be presented and discussed Time psychologists tended to draw conclusions restricted to their specific fields of interest From our own experience we felt that addressing a common issue possible relationships between time in action and representations of time could lead to a more comprehensive approach We are indebted to NATO for allowing us to bring this idea to fruition We take this opportunity as well to express our thanks to Cognisiences Cognisud section an active interdisciplinary research organization for its financial backing and the CNRS for its scientific support

Applied Psycholinguistics, 2006 Cohesion in Children's Fictional Stories Deborah Salgo, 1988 Journal of Narrative and Life History, 1994 Hispanic Journal of Behavioral Sciences, 1997 Handbook of Child Psychology, Cognition, Perception, and Language William Damon, 1998 This four volume handbook is the definitive reference in the field of child development It serves as a sourcebook encyclopedia and research review
