Children's Writing Pb 1998:

Pathways to Independence Jo Worthy, Karen Broaddus, Gay Ivey, 2001-04-20 This comprehensive text presents a core of research based approaches to engaging effective literacy instruction in the middle grades. Methods and materials are described to foster reading skills, content mastery, and writing in different formats and for different purposes. The authors emphasize the need to tailor instruction to the needs, strengths, skill levels, and interests of diverse students. They offer recommendations for reading lists that incorporate critically acclaimed fiction and nonfiction, popular series books, and other student friendly materials. Special features include case studies, examples of teaching and assessment activities, and commentary from middle school teachers and students. Appendices contain reproducible forms and lists of recommended reading materials and resources.

Children's Writer's and Illustrator's Market '98 Alice P. Buening, 1998-01-15 It's history with the nasty bits left in. Want to know how to be very rude without anybody knowing some murky Medieval jokes? What to say if someone calls you mundungus, hackum, or Jabbernowl? Get your revenge with some really wicked words even English teachers will be speechless.

Trauma Systems Therapy for Children and Teens, Second Edition Glenn N. Saxe, B. Heidi Ellis, Adam D. Brown, 2015-11-10 For too many traumatized children and their families, chronic stressors such as poverty, substance abuse, and family or community violence, coupled with an overburdened care system, pose seemingly insurmountable barriers to treatment. This empowering book provides a user friendly blueprint for making the most of limited resources to help those considered the toughest cases. Evidence based strategies are presented for effectively integrating individualized treatment with services at the home, school, and community levels. Written in an accessible, modular format with reproducible forms and step by step guidelines for assessment and intervention, the approach is grounded in the latest knowledge about child traumatic stress. It has been recognized as a treatment of choice by state mental health agencies nationwide.

Getting Children Writing Simon Brownhill, 2013-05-13 This is a fantastic book which provides creative and practical suggestions of how to engage all children in writing. Sarah Martin Denham, Senior Lecturer in Primary Education, University of Sunderland. This book is a practical guide designed to stimulate story writing in the early years and primary classroom. It offers a collection of novel and effective ideas which can be used by educators to energise, excite, and motivate children to willingly write stories across the 3-11 age phase. Each chapter offers creative and innovative ideas to get children writing stories, including how to help children see the point of story writing, how speaking and listening, reading, and phonics can be utilised to enhance written stories, how technology can facilitate refreshing story writing, how story writing can be physically interactive. By combining theory with practice, this book is ideal for those training to teach the 3 to 11 age range, those beginning their teaching career, and those who are established in their professional role. Simon Brownhill is Senior Teaching Associate at the University of Cambridge.
