China And The Search For Happiness:

China and the Search for Happiness Wolfgang Bauer,1976 China and the Search for Happiness Wolfgang Bauer,1976 Hector and the Search for Happiness François Lelord,2025-01-21 Can we learn how to be happy Hector is a successful young psychiatrist He s very good at treating patients in real need of his help But many people he sees have no health problems they re just deeply dissatisfied with their lives Hector can t do much for them and it s beginning to depress him So when a patient tells him he looks in need of a holiday Hector decides to set off round the world to find out what makes people everywhere happy and sad and whether there is such a thing as the secret of true happiness Over two million readers worldwide have engaged with psychiatrist Fran ois Lelord s modern fable Narrated with deceptive simplicity its perceptive observations on happiness offer us the chance to reflect on the contentment we all look for in our own lives The Politics of Reclusion Kendall H. Brown,1997-01-01 The Chinese themes of the Four Graybeards of Mt Shang and the Seven Sages of the Bamboo Grove figure prominently in the art of Momoyama period Japan ca 1575 1625 Kendall Brown proposes that the dense and multivalent implications of aesthetic reclusion central to these paintings made them appropriate for patrons of all classes the military who were presently in power the aristocracy who had lost power and the Buddhist priesthood who forsook power These paintings and their attendant messages thus serve as dynamic cultural agents that elucidate the fundamental paradigms of early modern Japanese society Unlike traditional art history studies which emphasize the style and history of art objects The Politics of Reclusion sets out to reconstruct the possible historical context for the interpretive reception and use of Chinese hermit themes within a specific period of Japanese art In emphasizing the political dimension of aesthetic reclusion it introduces into the field of Japanese art history a discussion of the politics of aesthetics that characterizes recent work in the field of Japanese literature By embedding the paintings within the contexts of politics philosophy religion and even gender this study restores the reflexive relations between the paintings and their culture and as such is one of the first extensive intellectual and social histories of Japanese art in a Western language It is one that will appeal not only to students of art but to those interested in Japanese literature history and philosophy The Culture of Love in China and Europe Paolo Santangelo,Gábor Boros,2020-01-13 In The Culture of Love in China and Europe Paolo Santangelo and G bor Boros offer a survey of the cults of love developed in the history of ideas and literary production in China and Europe between the 12th and early 19th century They describe parallel evolutions within the two cultures and how innovatively these independent civilisations developed their own categories and myths to explain exalt but also control the emotions of love and their behavioural expressions The analyses contain rich materials for comparison point out the universal and specific elements in each culture and hint at differences and resemblances without ignoring the peculiar beauty and attractive force of the texts cultivating love Chairman Mao Meets the Apostle Paul Khiok-Khng Yeo,2002 How do utopian dreams measure up to a Christian hope for a better world How do Western Christians best understand and support the struggling Chinese church In short what can the apostle Paul have to do with Chairman Mao K K Yeo brings Pauline eschatology and Maoist utopianism into conversation in Chairman Mao Meets the Apostle Paul Yeo begins this discussion with the necessary background material needed to understand the landscape of both Mao's and Paul's philosophies of ideal society and history He then compares Maoism with ancient Chinese theology Marxism and Pauline theology Yeo shows how Maoism changed and incorporated Chinese and Marxist views and compares the result to the message of Paul and the Christian West Finally the book offers hope for the entire church in the post Paul and post Mao eras New Testament and theological scholars and students those interested in world affairs and those who wish to better appreciate the church in China will learn from and be challenged by this important book The Netherworld in Ancient Egypt and China Mu-chou Poo,2023-11-16 Considering the striking similarities between the treatment of the dead and conceptions of the netherworld in ancient Egypt and China how can we compare the two traditions Mu chou Poo considers this question and provides a new perspective on archaeological materials including tomb structures and funerary texts by addressing them in the context of universal human problems such as death the future of the dead and the search for happiness in life Poo chronologically reconstructs the emergence of the idea of the netherworld and its evolution in both ancient Egypt and ancient China He explores the relationship between religious beliefs and social ethics in these civilizations considers why similar social and material conditions could have produced varied expressions of the afterlife and what such variations reveal about each culture Poo argues that a comparison between both visions of the netherworld and their relationship to life experience gives further insight into the nature of each civilization Through this analysis Poo shows that thematic comparison of ancient civilizations is not only possible but also relevant to modern society The China Mission Year Book ,1918 Anxious China Li Zhang,2020-08-04 The breathless pace of China's economic reform has brought about deep ruptures in socioeconomic structures and people's inner landscape Faced with increasing market driven competition and profound social changes more and more middle class urbanites are turning to Western style psychological counseling to grapple with their mental distress This book offers an in depth ethnographic account of how an unfolding inner revolution is reconfiguring selfhood psyche family dynamics sociality and the mode of governing in post socialist times Li Zhang shows that anxiety broadly construed in both medical and social terms has become a powerful indicator for the general pulse of contemporary Chinese society It is in this particular context that Zhang traces how a new psychotherapeutic culture takes root thrives and transforms itself across a wide range of personal social and political domains China Christian Year Book ,1918 中国基督教年刊,1986 China Sunday School Journal ,1913 China Digest ,1930 The End of Ideology & Utopia? Leonidas Donskis,2000 In tracing the modern moral imagination Donskis works out a theory of tolerance dialogue human intersubjectivity the Other ideology and utopia This theory then provides the framework for social and cultural criticism By considering the work of Kavolis Gellner Dumont and Mumford Donskis argues that modern critiques of culture

Moody,1988-10-06 Moody presents the thesis that post Confucian societies are influenced by the legacy of a strong state ruling over a weak social structure Ruling and opposition elites thus tend toward factionalism based on personal ties and also to moralistic rather than interest based criticism which often leads to extreme and irresponsible political behavior Moody applies this thesis to all the post Confucian states of East Asia in uneven chapters on Taiwan South Korea South Vietnam China North Korea Vietnam as a whole and Japan Moody's witty and cynical style and an elegant thesis make this work suitable for advanced undergraduates and graduate students as well No country in the Confucian cultural area has shown great tolerance for competitive politics China Taiwan the two Koreas and Vietnam are either authoritarian or totalitarian in political structure Thus Peter R Moody Jr begins his comparative study of the historical backgrounds and contemporary political situations in post Confucian states Political Opposition in Post Confucian Society studies the obstacles to democratization in East Asia Japan writes Moody of the only exception to the political structure of this region has not yet proven itself a competitive democracy and the present democratic system was imposed by foreign occupation This book demonstrates how a similar logic of politics pervades these societies despite differences in culture and political institutions Moody provides an up to date analysis of politics in these countries and examines contemporary developments in a historical and cultural context Poland China Swine World ,1926 The China Weekly Review ,1929 The Unitarian Jabez Thomas Sunderland,Brooke Herford, Frederick B.
