China The East Is Red:

China: the East is Red George Bales,1969 The East is Red Maslyn Williams,1967 The East Is Black Robeson Taj Frazier,2015-02-15 During the Cold War several prominent African American radical activist intellectuals including W E B and Shirley Graham Du Bois journalist William Worthy Marxist feminist Vicki Garvin and freedom fighters Mabel and Robert Williams traveled and lived in China There they used a variety of media to express their solidarity with Chinese communism and to redefine the relationship between Asian struggles against imperialism and black American movements against social racial and economic injustice In The East Is Black Taj Frazier examines the ways in which these figures and the Chinese government embraced the idea of shared struggle against U S policies at home and abroad He analyzes their diverse cultural output newsletters print journalism radio broadcasts political cartoons lectures and documentaries to document how they imagined communist China s role within a broader vision of a worldwide anticapitalist coalition against racism and imperialism

A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang,2017-05-22 Literature from the Chinese perspective makes manifest the cosmic patterns that shape and complete the world a process of worlding that is much more than mere representation In that spirit A New Literary History of Modern China looks beyond state sanctioned works and official narratives to reveal China as it has seldom been seen before through a rich spectrum of writings covering Chinese literature from the late seventeenth century to the present Featuring over 140 Chinese and non Chinese contributors from throughout the world this landmark volume explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres pop song lyrics and presidential speeches political treatises and prison house jottings to name just a few Major figures such as Lu Xun Shen Congwen Eileen Chang and Mo Yan appear in a new light while lesser known works illuminate turning points in recent history with unexpected clarity and force Many essays emphasize Chinese authors influence on foreign writers as well as China s receptivity to outside literary influences Contemporary works that engage with ethnic minorities and environmental issues take their place in the critical discussion alongside writers who embraced Chinese traditions and others who resisted Writers assessments of the popularity of translated foreign language classics and avant garde subjects refute the notion of China as an insular and inward looking culture A vibrant collection of contrasting voices and points of view A New Literary History of Modern China is essential reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of China s literary and cultural legacy

Red Legacies in China Jie Li,Enhua Zhang,2020-10-26 What has contemporary China inherited from its revolutionary past How do the realities and memories aesthetics and practices of the Mao era still reverberate in the post Mao cultural landscape The essays in this volume propose red legacies as a new critical framework from which to examine the profusion of cultural productions and afterlives of the communist revolution in order to understand China s continuities and transformations from socialism to postsocialism Organized into five parts red foundations red icons red classics red bodies and red shadows the book s interdisciplinary contributions focus on visual and performing arts literature and film language and thought architecture museums and memorials Mediating at once unfulfilled ideals and unmourned ghosts across generations red cultural legacies suggest both inheritance and debt and can be mobilized to support as well as to critique the status quo Is the East Still Red? Gary Blank,2015-02-27 Does China represent a non capitalist alternative to neoliberal development models Commentators on the left have offered sharply divergent assessments over the last two decades A few still cling the old dream of market socialism twinning efficiency with social justice For most however China is proof that market reforms invariably yield dispossession inequality and capitalist restoration Is the East Still Red argues that both interpretations are wrong and exhibit a common failure to distinguish between market mechanisms and capitalist imperatives Gary Blank situates the Chinese experience within broader Marxist debates on socio historical transitions and primitive accumulation highlighting the need to conceptualize capitalism as a unique system in which producers and appropriators depend on the market for their reproduction Despite years of marketization the mandarins in Beijing have not yet imposed full market dependence in industry and agriculture He shows how the resistance of workers and peasants the imperatives of party state legitimacy and the reproductive strategies of individual Communist officials and managers all act to perpetuate central aspects of a bureaucratic collectivist system in which direct producers and bureaucrats are effectively merged with the means of production The People s Republic may be a non capitalist market alternative albeit one that is hardly edifying for socialists As Far as the East is from the West Daniel D. Bidwell,1912 As Far as the East is from the West Daniel Doane Bidwell,1910 This is Communist China ,1968 Great Britain and the East ... ,1917
