The Oxford Book of Children's Verse in America Donald Hall, 1990-12-13 Compiled by the award winning poet and author of children's books Donald Hall this delightful anthology follows in the tradition of Iona and Peter Opie's classic Oxford Book of Children's Verse Hall brings together poems written specifically for children and also those written for anyone and enjoyed by children and adults alike He presents over two hundred fifty poems written by over one hundred different American poets including anonymous works ballads and recitation pieces that range from the Calvinist verses of the seventeenth century to the fabulous nonsense poems of the present Drawing on literally thousands of sources including Sunday School magazines Christmas annuals for children and such wonderful children's periodicals as St Nicholas and Youth's Companion Hall gives the modern reader a rich sampling of many poems never before anthologized He includes everyone's favorites from Clement Clarke Moore's A Visit from St Nicholas aka The Night Before Christmas to the classic lines of Longfellow and Whittier Along with Sarah Josepha Hale's famous poem Mary's Lamb we find poetry by Emily Dickinson Mary Mapes Dodge Palmer Cox Sarah Orne Jewett Laura E Richards and Gelett Burgess He also covers the twentieth century with verse by T S Eliot Edna St Vincent Millay Langston Hughes Ogden Nash Dr Seuss Theodore Geisel and Randall Jarrell just to name a few Hall concludes with the poetry of present day writers such as Shel Silverstein and Nancy Willard A testament to a captivating tradition in American literature this anthology will encourage many hours of nostalgic browsing and reading aloud to children

The Aesthetics of Children's Poetry Katherine Wakely-Mulrone, Louise Joy, 2017-11-01 This collection gives sustained attention to the literary dimensions of children's poetry from the eighteenth century to the present While reasserting the importance of well known voices such as those of Isaac Watts William Blake Lewis Carroll Christina Rossetti A A Milne and Carol Ann Duffy the contributors also reflect on the aesthetic significance of landmark works by less frequently celebrated figures such as Richard Johnson Ann and Jane Taylor Cecil Frances Alexander and Michael Rosen Scholarly treatment of children's poetry has tended to focus on its publication history rather than to explore what comprises and why we delight in its idiosyncratic pleasures And yet arguments about how and why poetic language might appeal to the child are embroiled in the history of children's poetry whether in Isaac Watts emphasizing the didactic efficacy of like sounds William Blake and the Taylor sisters revelling in the beauty of semantic ambiguity or the authors of nonsense verse jettisoning sense to thrill their readers with the sheer music of poetry Alive to the ways in which recent debates both echo and repudiate those conducted in earlier periods The Aesthetics of Children's Poetry investigates the stylistic and formal means through which children's poetry in theory and in practice negotiates the complicated demands we have made of it through the ages

The 20th Century Children's Poetry Treasury, 1999-09-28 Until this century most children's poetry was either syrupy sweet or overblown and didactic and tended to talk down to its readers Contemporary children's poets have thrown all that condescension and moralizing out the window and write with today's real child in mind from the Introduction

From Tongue to Text: A New Reading of Children's Poetry Debbie Pullinger, 2017-05-04 The connection between childhood and poetry runs deep And yet poetry written for children has been neglected by criticism and resists prevailing theories of children's literature Drawing on Walter Ong's theory of orality and on Iain McGilchrist's work on brain function this book develops a new theoretical framework for the study of children's poetry From Tongue to Text argues that the poem is a multimodal form that exists in the borderlands between the world of experience and the world of language and between orality and literacy places that children themselves inhabit Engaging with a wide range of poetry from nursery rhymes and Christina Rossetti to Michael Rosen and Carol Ann Duffy Debbie Pullinger demonstrates how these tactful works are shaped by the dynamics of orality and textuality
