The Three Faces of Chinese Power David M. Lampton, 2008-04-30 By learning more not only about China but from China America is more likely to sustain a constructive relationship with the rising China Lampton insightfully provides us with the much needed guidance Zbigniew Brzezinski Center for Strategic and International Studies Professor Lampton s stimulating and well researched book provides a comprehensive framework for intelligent thinking about the implications for the United States and the world of the rapid expansion of China s economic and military power Serious students of world affairs and non specialists concerned about the outlook for U S China relations will all benefit from the historically based insights and judgments that fill the pages of this thought provoking volume J Stapleton Roy former United States ambassador to China

China: Minority Exclusion, Marginalization and Rising Tensions, 2007-04-17 China s rapid economic transformation has exposed the intrinsic and historical problems of the government s policies towards ethnic minorities The report focuses on three groups the Mongols of the Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region IMAR the Tibetans of the Tibet Autonomous Region TAR and the Uyghurs of the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region XUAR With areas minority groups inhabit under autonomous control within the People s Republic of China PRC outsiders might expect that such a governance system would allow these groups to be able to shape their own lives However ethnic minority individuals continue to be excluded from real political participation they have little say in the governance of their communities and minority women fare even worse than minority men The human rights situation remains serious for all those living within China s borders but ethnic minorities such as the Mongols Tibetans and Uyghurs face challenges on multiple fronts Despite the autonomy system minorities are bearing the disproportionate costs of development and are facing attacks on their cultural identities Their lands are being exploited for gas and oil and under the guise of the USA led war on terror increasingly militarized by the PRC government as part of its response against perceived insurgency threats Minority languages are largely being phased out of education in these autonomous regions and minority individuals are often blatantly discriminated against in the job market This report is part of MRG s conflict prevention campaign The PRC government is not fulfilling its obligations under international law and domestic law Its current methods of addressing the issues raised in this report will only heighten tensions and accumulate grievances rather than building a peaceful society

An East Asian Renaissance Indermit Singh Gill, Homi J. Kharas, Deepak Bhattasali, 2007 An East Asian Renaissance by a World Bank team led by Chief Economist for East Asia Pacific Dr Homi Kharas and Economic Adviser Dr Indermit Gill is the first comprehensive analysis of the new forces and challenges at play in the region since the Bank s seminal report of 1993 The East Asian Miracle The report argues that regional flows of goods finance and technology are helping even smaller East Asian countries reap the benefits of economies of scale and that this regional integration must be encouraged But it also points out that these measures have to be supported by actions at the domestic level to ease the stresses and strains that rapid economic growth leaves in its wake East Asia must now turn to the urgent domestic challenges of inequality social cohesion corruption and environmental degradation arising from its economic success

Beyond compliance Ann E. Kent, 2009 An extensively researched study of Chinese participation in international organisations this book argues that the record of China s international behaviour since the 1970s indicates the long term effectiveness of the multilateral system

China Human Development Report, 1998 Human Development Report 1995 United Nations Development Programme, 1995 This sixth edition of the widely respected Human Development Report updates the unique Human Development Indicators comparing human development in most countries of the world and the data tables on all aspects of human development This edition includes a special section that examines issues of gender analyzing global trends in closing and widening gender gaps in different regions and countries It presents new indicators of gender equality in order to rank countries on a global scale while it highlights policies that have ensured equal access to opportunities for men and women The issue also proposes new methodologies to measure and value unpaid contributions made by men and women to human development through household and community activities and it identifies a new action agenda for promoting gender equality in the decades ahead

Human Development Report 1992 United Nations Development Programme, 1992 Since its headline making debut the Human Development Report has become an essential resource for development specialists economists and political scientists around the world The 1992 Report not only updates the findings of the earlier volumes but also examines the international dimensions of human development showing how global economic growth and the expansion of the world economy have filtered down to poor economies and poor people in developing countries In addition it examines tpcps between human development and international markets for products capital and labor addresses issues of global governance and presents updated human development indicators for more than 160 countries
