Smith, 2017-11-25 Excerpt from China in Convulsion Vol 2 of 2 With Numerous Illustrations and Maps At nine o'clock one evening an order came from Col Shiba Commanding the Japanese in the Su Wang Eu for ten men and fifty sand bags for immediate use The superintendent secured the bags but could find only four available men He then waked up another gentleman who being appointed on a wholly different committee had nothing to do with the present exigency but assisted on general principles On arriving at the Eu this gentle man learned that Col Shiba had already got the men needed from the Roman Catholics near at hand Meantime a note had come to the British Legation from the American Captain on the wall requiring twenty men to raise higher the western wall of the eastern barri cade as the Chinese west barricade was firing into it The superintendent excused a lad too small to handle the huge bricks on the wall and sent the same obliging substitute with the three men on hand to aid the band that were kept permanently in the American Legation for emergencies but happened on this occasion already to have been working all day When he arrived there the Captain who gave the order had been relieved and his successor in charge knew nothing about any call for men but informed the conductor of the workmen that it had been decided to postpone the work until daylight when it would be done better The ad interim assistant the superintendent and the Chinese were then enabled to retire for what remained of the night About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works China in Convulsion H.
