China in International Society Since 1949 Y. Zhang, 1998-10-05 This book is a reinterpretation of China s international relations since 1949 Employing the notion and theory of international society it offers a systematic examination of China s unique relationship with the society of states from its alienation in the 1950s and the 1960s to its political socialisation and economic integration in the 1980s and the 1990s It explores how such a unique relationship has shaped and is likely to shape Chinese foreign policy This book provides an entirely new perspective for our understanding of forces influencing Chinese foreign policy behaviour

Foreign Policy Restructuring as Adaptive Behavior Sanqiang Jian, 1996-08-15 This text systematically examines the restructuring of China s foreign policy from a single dimensional anti Soviet policy to an omnidirectional independent foreign policy of peace in the 1980s An adaptive behaviour approach is used as the framework fo

China's Relations with Arabia and the Gulf 1949-1999 Mohamed Mousa Mohamed Ali Bin Huwaidin, 2003-09-02 This book provides a detailed analysis of China s foreign policy towards the Gulf and Arabian peninsula region from the establishment of the People s Republic of China in 1949 to the end of the 20th century Based on extensive original research it looks at the relations between China and each of the countries of the region over the entire period It demonstrates that two key factors have shaped China s foreign policy with the region China s relations with the United States and the Soviet Union and China s drive to increase its economic ties with the countries of the region especially after becoming a net importer of oil in the early 1990s

Inside China's Grand Strategy Ye Zicheng, 2010-12-01 China s enormous size vast population abundant natural resources robust economy and modern military suggest that it will emerge as a great world power Inside China s Grand Strategy The Perspective from the People s Republic offers unique insights from a prominent Chinese scholar about the country s geopolitical ambitions and strategic thinking Ye Zicheng professor of political science in the School of International Studies at Peking University examines China's interactions with current world powers as well as its policies toward neighboring countries Despite claims that repressive domestic policies and an economic slowdown are evidence that the country's efforts toward modernization will fail Ye points to China's inclusion in the G 20 as an indicator of success Ye compares China's global ascension particularly its emphasis on peace to the historical experiences of rising European superpowers providing an insider look at a country poised to become an increasingly prominent international power China's Foreign Affairs ,2006 Summary of World Broadcasts British Broadcasting Corporation.
