James Dodds, a theologian and historian with deep roots in doctrinal teaching, brings his extensive background to bear in this work. His own spiritual journey and experiences in both ministry and academia inform his reflections on the Creed, allowing him to approach complex theological concepts with clarity and conviction. An Exposition of the Apostles' Creed Casper Olevianus,2010-01-01 Olevianus's Exposition of the Apostles' Creed is a collection of sermons he preached on the basic articles of the Christian faith. It serves as a reminder that the Reformed tradition did not see itself as separate from the universal church, though it was principally opposed to Rome. Rather, Olevianus and his tradition argue for a Reformed catholicity rooted in the ancient confession of the church. This translation by Lyle D Bierma, along with R Scott Clark's historical introduction, will benefit both scholarly and general readers. Charged with federal language, An Exposition explains the Christian faith as the believer's fellowship with God in the covenant of grace. Thus, it is significant for its contribution to the development of Reformed covenantal theology. In addition to exhibiting its historical value within the Reformed tradition, readers will be directed, as Olevianus had intended, toward edification in true and sound piety.

by men who appealed to Scripture in confirmation of the doctrines they taught The true teaching of the Word of God is gathered from careful and continuous searching of the Scriptures and there is danger of fatal error when conclusions are drawn from isolated passages interpreted in accordance with preconceived opinions It has been found not only expedient but needful that the Christian Churches should set forth in creeds and confessions the doctrines which they believe the
