Understanding Assessment David Lambert, David Lines, 2013-04-15 This is the first title in this new series which is aimed principally at secondary PGCE and BAEd students and school and HEI based tutors Each book provides a digest of the central issues around a particular topic or issues grounded in or supported by examples of good practice with suggestions for further reading study and investigation The books are not intended as how to books but rather as books which will help students and teachers to explore and understand critical theoretical issues in ways that are challenging that invite critical reappraisals of taken for granted practices and perceptions and that provide appropriate links between theory and practice Issues related to equal opportunities and special needs are included in each separate volume There are boxes of questions think abouts further reading and bulleted summary lists for the reader This book is written specifically for teachers in training which will clarify the big picture of monitoring and assessment and makes the crucial distinctions in this large and still taken for granted field The authors have written widely on assessment matters and have also worked in various capacities for the QCA and its former manifestations They are also engaged in initial teacher education and so know the level and market extremely well

Third validation compendium report Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2006-12-19 In 2004 the Government announced 110 Public Service Agreement PSA targets for 17 Departments covering the period 2005 08 PSA targets express the priority outcomes that Departments are seeking to achieve nationally and internationally and cover key aspects of the Government's social economic and environmental policy Large sums of public money are devoted to the programmes designed to deliver them This NAO report contains the detailed results of its examination of the data systems used by six government departments to monitor and report progress against their 2005 08 PSA targets covering a total of 65 data systems The six Departments are the Cabinet Office the Department for Culture Media and Sport the Department for Education and Skills the Department for the Environment Food and Rural Affairs the Ministry of Defence and HM Treasury Findings include that 75 per cent of the data systems used are broadly appropriate but less than half of these were fully fit for purpose Most required some action to strengthen measurement or reporting arrangements A companion volume HCP 127 I session 2006 07 ISBN 0102944040 is available separately which contains the NAO's summarised findings

Training to Teach in Primary Schools Jane Medwell, 2015-03-19 Full of practical help and guidance this is a must have for primary trainees on school experience whether they are in a school based or university based teacher training programme It begins by helping trainees to plan their own journey through training and beyond Taking control of their own training in this way supports student teachers to approach the course with confidence and secure their first teaching job The book provides guidance on adapting to working in school observing planning and evaluating in school teaching on placement assessing monitoring and reporting on children's progress self evaluation and how to prevent and resolve issues securing the first teaching job and succeeding in the NQT year For student teachers the experience of school based training is exciting but also challenging this book supports them throughout and prepares them for the journey ahead Student feedback on this book Having been on a variety of teaching placements myself I know just how daunting and overwhelming experiences in school can be at times even with a supportive mentor by your side Hence I felt that this book can smooth out and rectify those worries one may face during a school placement and offers the reader a realistic insight into school experiences In my opinion the most useful chapter by far is the Moving On chapter near the end of the book This explains how to conclude a school placement what to expect from an interview and even how to set out a CV for a teaching position This was not something I expected to find in this book however it was very much welcomed and is in fact a very important valuable part of the book This is the type of book you can buy on your very first day of teacher training and use well into your days as a newly qualified teacher Jasmin Primary Teacher Trainee University of Northampton
