The Early Modern World, 1450-1750 John C. Corbally, Casey J. Sullivan, 2022-01-27 The Early Modern World 1450 1750 Seeds of Modernity takes a distinctive approach to global history and enables a holistic view of the world during this period without prioritizing any one nation or region It guides students towards an understanding of how different empires nations communities and individuals constructed contested and were touched by major trends and events Its thematic structure covers politics technology economics the environment and intellectual and religious worldviews In order to connect global trends and events to human experiences each chapter is underpinned by a social and cultural history focus enabling the reader to gain an understanding of the lived human experience and make sense of various perspectives and worldviews The Legacy feature also discusses connections between early modern history and the contemporary world looking at how the past is contested or memorialized today The result is a textbook that helps the 21st century student gain a rich and nuanced understanding of the global history of the early modern period

The Book of Nature in Early Modern and Modern History Klaas van Berkel, Arie Johan Vanderjagt, 2006 From 22 25 May 2002 the University of Groningen hosted an international conference on The Book of Nature Continuity and change in European and American attitudes towards the natural world From Antiquity down to our own time theologians philosophers and scientists have often compared nature to a book which might under the right circumstances be read and interpreted in order to come closer to the Author of nature God The reading of this book was not regarded as mere idle curiosity but it was seen as leading to a deeper understanding of God s wisdom and power and it culturally legitimated and promoted a positive attitude towards nature and its study A selection of the papers which were delivered at the conference has been edited in two volumes The first book was published as The Book of Nature in Antiquity and the Middle Ages this second volume is devoted to the history of that concept after the Middle Ages

Renaissance Humanism, from the Middle Ages to Modern Times John Monfasani, 2016-12-05 Starting with an essay on the Renaissance as the concluding phase of the Middle Ages and ending with appreciations of Paul Oskar Kristeller the great twentieth century scholar of the Renaissance this new volume by John Monfasani brings together seventeen articles that focus both on individuals such as Erasmus of Rotterdam Angelo Poliziano Marsilio Ficino and Niccol Perotti and on large scale movements such as the spread of Italian humanism Ciceronianism Biblical criticism and the Plato Aristotle Controversy In addition to entering into the persistent debate on the nature of the Renaissance the articles in the volume also engage what of late have become controversial topics namely the shape and significance of Renaissance humanism and the character of the Platonic Academy in Florence

Latin Literatures of Medieval and Early Modern Times in Europe and Beyond Francesco Stella, Lucie Doležalová, Danuta Shanzer, 2024-07-15 The textual heritage of Medieval Latin is one of the greatest reservoirs of human culture Repertories list more than 16 000 authors from about 20 modern countries Until now there has been no introduction to this world in its full geographical extension Forty contributors fill this gap by adopting a new perspective making available to specialists but also to the interested public new materials and insights The project presents an overview of Medieval and post medieval Latin Literatures as a global phenomenon including both Europe and extra European regions It serves as an introduction to medieval Latin s complex and multi layered culture whose attraction has been underestimated until now Traditional overviews mostly flatten specificities yet in many countries medieval Latin literature is still studied with reference to the local history Thus the first section presents 20 regional surveys including chapters on authors and works of Latin Literature in Eastern Central and Northern Europe Africa the Middle East Asia and the Americas Subsequent chapters highlight shared patterns of circulation adaptation and exchange and underline the appeal of medieval intermediality as evidenced in manuscripts maps scientific treatises and iconotexts and its performativity in narrations theatre sermons and music The last section deals with literary interfaces that is motifs or characters that exemplify the double sided or the long term transformations of medieval Latin mythologemes in vernacular culture both early modern and modern such as the legends about King Arthur Faust and Hamlet

Between the Middle Ages and Modernity Charles H. Parker, Jerry H. Bentley, 2006-12-28 This groundbreaking book examines the complex relationships between individuals and communities during the profound transitions of the early modern period Historians have traditionally identified the origins of a modern individualist spirit in the European Renaissance and Reformation Yet since the 1960s evolving scholarship has challenged this perspective by calling into question its basic assumptions about individualism its exclusive focus on elite individuals and its inherent Eurocentric bias Arguing that individual identity drew from traditional forms of community these essays by leading scholars convincingly show that individual and community created and recreated one another in the major structures interactions and transitions of early modern times The authors contend that on the one hand communities provided the stability that allowed for individual agency even as they imposed new forms of discipline that confined individuals to more rigid moral and social norms On the other hand individuals established forms of association to advance their own economic social political and religious agendas Offering an important contribution to our understanding both of the early modern period and of its historiography this volume will be an invaluable resource for scholars working in the fields of medieval early modern and modern history and on the Renaissance and Reformation Contributions by Jerry H Bentley Thomas A Brady Jr Douglas Catterall Donald J Harreld Susan C Karant Nunn Marie Seong Hak Kim Henk van Nierop Charles H Parker Michael N Pearson Carla Rahn Phillips William D Phillips Jr Elizabeth Bradbury Pollnow Kathryn L Reyerson Hugo de Schepper Ulrike Strasser Sanjay Subrahmanyam and Markus P M Vink

The Medieval & Early Modern World Bonnie G. Smith, Donald R. Kelley, 2005-05-01 The Medieval and Early Modern World tells the colorful story of a pivotal period in human history an era that is crucial to understanding our own times The expansion of trade and city life the spread and reform of religious institutions the rise of regional empires and local feudal regimes and revolutionary advances in science and technology laid the foundation for the modern world Told through the words and experiences of the people who lived it kings queens and commoners priests and lay people explorers scientists artists and world travelers this is a world history for a new generation

Marking Modern Times Alexis McCrossen, 2013-05 In Marking Modern Times Alexis McCrossen relates how the American preoccupation with time led people from across social classes to acquire watches and clocks and expands our understanding of the ways we have standardized time and have made timekeepers serve as political social and cultural tools in a society that not merely values time but regards access to it as a natural born right
