Ea Crusaders Cross:

Invisible Weapons M. Cecilia Gaposchkin, 2017-01-17 Throughout the history of the Crusades liturgical prayer masses and alms were all marshaled in the fight against Muslim armies In Invisible Weapons M Cecilia Gaposchkin focuses on the ways in which Latin Christians communicated their ideas and aspirations for crusade to God through liturgy how public worship was deployed and how prayers and masses absorbed the ideals and priorities of crusading Placing religious texts and practices within the larger narrative of crusading Gaposchkin offers a new understanding of a crucial facet in the culture of holy war Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities The Crusader, 1927 The Preaching of the Third Crusade (1187-1192) Alexander Marx, 2024-12-23 This book delivers the first substantial study of the preaching of the Third Crusade 1187-92 It assembles c 200 sermon texts and c 100 manuscripts to understand the explosive dynamic of mobilization in the Latin West Dealing with the essential fact that a genre called crusade sermon did not exist it develops methodological devices for identifying sermons relevant for the crusading purpose The book contests thus the modern historiography which has placed too much trust in the few chronicle reports However its fruitful blending of crusading preaching exegesis manuscript studies and intellectual history has much to offer beyond crusade studies

Crusaders and Crusading in the Twelfth Century Giles Constable, 2008 This volume brings together revised and updated versions of Giles Constable's classic essays on crusading in the 12th century along with two major new studies on the cross of the crusaders and the Fourth Crusade and two excursions on the terminology of crusading and the numbering of the crusades Together they show the range and depth of the crusading movement at that time and its influence on the broader history of the period Courting Sanctity Sean L. Field, 2019-05-15 The rise of the Capetian dynasty across the long thirteenth century which rested in part on the family's perceived sanctity is a story most often told through the actions of male figures from Louis IX's metamorphosis into Saint Louis to Philip IV's attacks on Pope Boniface VIII In Courting Sanctity Sean L Field argues that in fact holy women were central to the Capetian's self presentation as being uniquely favored by God Tracing the shifting relationship between holy women and the French royal court he shows that the roles and influence of these women were questioned and reshaped under Philip III and increasingly assumed to pose physical spiritual and political threats by the time of Philip IV's death Field's narrative highlights six holy women The saintly reputations of Isabelle of France and Douceline of Digne helped to crystalize the Capetians claims of divine favor by 1260 In the 1270s the French court faced a crisis that centered on the testimony of Elizabeth of Spalbeek a visionary holy woman from the Low Countries After 1300 the arrests and interrogations of Paupertas of Metz Margueronne of Bellevillette and Marguerite Porete served to bolster Philip IV's crusades against the dangers supposedly threatening the kingdom of France Courting Sanctity thus reassesses key turning points in the ascent of the most Christian Capetian court through examinations of the lives and images of the holy women that the court sanctified or defamed The Rise and Fall of British Crusader Medievalism, c.1825-1945 Mike Horswell,2018-01-29 This book investigates the uses of crusader medievalism the memory of the crusades and crusading rhetoric and imagery in Britain from Walter Scott s The Talisman 1825 to the end of the Second World War It seeks to understand why and when the crusades and crusading were popular how they fitted with other cultural trends of the Victorian and Edwardian eras how their use was affected by the turmoil of the First World War and whether they were differently employed in the interwar years and in the 1939 45 conflict Building on existing studies and contributing the fruits of fresh research it brings together examples of the uses of the crusades from disparate contexts and integrates them into the story of the rise and fall crusader medievalism in Britain Crusades and Memory Megan Cassidy-Welch,Anne

Lester,2017-10-02 Crusading was a religious movement involving papal authorization the incentive of remission of sins pious motivation on behalf of the individual and the justification of holy war Much recent historiography in this area has focused on resolving the questions of what a crusade was and why people went on them But crusading became a cultural and social phenomenon that changed across time and geographical space In turn crusading was shaped by the ways specific crusades and their participants were remembered in specific historical contexts Moreover crusade memory had profound effects on the cultivation of family lineage kinship ties national and regional identity and religious orthodoxy Integrating memory into crusades scholarship thus offers new ways of exploring the aftermath of war the construction of cultural and social memory the role of women and families in this process and the crusading movement itself This book explores memory as a methodological means of understanding the crusades It engages with theories of communicative memory social and cultural memory war commemoration and historical processes of remembering Contributions explore the variety of cultural forms used in cultivating crusade memory Material visual liturgical and textual objects are all reflective of crusade culture and the process of crafting its memory and the analysis of such sources is of particular interest This publication furthers new trends in crusade scholarship which understand the crusades as a broad religious movement that called upon and developed within a wider cultural framework than previously acknowledged This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Medieval History Christian Crusade ,1966 Dictionary, French and English, English and French John Bellows,1890

The Crusader of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association ,1910 Preaching the Crusades to the Eastern Mediterranean Constantinos Georgiou,2018-03-05 Preaching was an integral part of the crusade movement This book focuses on the efforts of the first four Avignon popes to organize crusade preaching campaigns to the Eastern Mediterranean and on the role of the secular and regular clergy in their implementation Historians have treated the fall of Acre in 1291 as an arbitrary boundary in crusader studies for far too long The period 1305 1352 was particularly significant for crusade preaching yet it has not been studied in detail This volume thus constitutes an important addition to the flourishing field of late medieval crusade historiography The core of the book deals with two interlocking themes the liturgy for the Holy Land and the popular response to crusade preaching between the papacies of Clement V and Clement VI The book analyses the evolving use of the liturgy for the crusade in combination with preaching and it illustrates the catalytic role of these measures in driving popular pro crusade sentiments A key theme in the account is the analysis of the surviving crusade sermons of the Parisian theologians from the era Critical editions of these previously neglected propagandistic texts are a valuable addition to our corpus of papal correspondence relating to the crusades in the later Middle Ages This book will be of interest both to specialized historians and to students of late medieval crusading The Temperance Crusader ,1877
