Liberation/red Scare Gerald Horne,1994-07 Black Liberation Red Scare is a study of an African American Communist leader Ben Davis Jr 1904 64 Though it examines the numerous grassroots campaigns that he was involved in it is first and foremost a study of the man and secondarily a study of the Communist party from the 1930s to the 1960s By examining the public life of an important party leader Gerald Horne uniquely approaches the story of how and why the party rose and fell Ben Davis Jr was the son of a prominent Atlanta publisher and businessman who was also the top African American leader of the Republican party until the onset of the Great Depression Davis was trained for the black elite at Morehouse Amherst and Harvard Law School After graduating from Harvard he joined the Communist party where he remained as one of its most visible leaders for thirty years In 1943 after being endorsed by his predecessor Adam Clayton Powell Jr he was elected to the New York City Council from Harlem and subsequently reelected by a larger margin in 1945 Davis received support from such community figures as NAACP leader Roy Wilkins boxer Joe Louis and musician Duke Ellington While on the council Davis fought for rent control and progressive taxation and struggled against transit fare hikes and police brutality With the onset of the Red Scare and the Cold War Davis like the Communist party itself was marginalized The Cold War made it difficult for the U S to compete with Moscow for the hearts and minds of African Americans while they were subjected to third class citizenship at home Yet in return for civil rights concessions African American organizations such as the NAACP were forced to distance themselves from figures such as Ben Davis In 1949 he was ousted unceremoniously and perhaps illegally from the

City Council He was put on trial jailed in 1951 and not released until 1956 when the civil rights movement was gathering momentum His friendship with the King family based upon family ties in Atlanta was the ostensible cause for the FBI surveillance of Dr Martin Luther King Jr and COINTELPRO the counterintelligence program of the FBI which was aimed initially at the CP USA made sure to keep a close eye on Davis as well But when the civil rights movement reached full strength in the 1960s Davis s controversial appearances at college campuses helped to set the stage for a new era of activism at universities Davis died in 1964 According to Horne the time has now come when he along with his good friend Paul Robeson and W E B DuBois should be regarded as a premier leader of African Americans and the U S Left during the twentieth century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Earl Browder Elizabeth Gurley Flynn,1941 Reminiscences of Earl Browder Earl Browder,1964 Childhood in Kansas Populist Party social and economic characteristics of Kansas socialism Office Workers Union American Federation of Labor union activities 1914 World War I anti war group Tom Mooney Russian Revolution 1917 Communist Party 1919 Industrial Workers of the World vs American Federation of Labor International Trade Union Congress Russia 1921 3rd Congress Communist International La Follette movement Chinese Revolution 1927 Pan Pacific Trade Union Secretariat 1928 Communist magazines development of Congress of Industrial Organizations 1930s Scottsboro case Negro rights 1936 presidential campaign leftist organizations 1930s United Front and 7th Congress Communist International 1935 Spanish Civil War and International Brigade Stalin Hitler Pact 1939 World War II postwar changes in Communist Party discussion of ideology impressions of Communist leaders Earl Browder Before United States Senate Earl Browder,1950 The Writings and Speeches of Earl Browder Earl Browder,1945* Earl Browder talks to America Earl Browder,1937 Earl Browder on the Soviet Union Earl Browder,1942
