

Early Childhood Workshops

Power of Play

Power of play focuses on the importance of interacting through play.

This workshop is designed to help caregivers/parents understand how playing together can support early childhood development and offer tips on fun ways to play.

Social Emotional Development

During this workshop, caregivers/parents will gain an understanding of social emotion development, why it is important, and what they can do to support it in their children.

Family Engagement

This workshop provides family members with practical but simple strategies to strengthen the caregiver/child relationship and support their child's development at home.

Family Literacy

Family literacy is a term used to describe caregivers and children learning together.

This workshop explains why caregiver/parent engagement at home is important and provides strategies that they can use to make the most out of the time they spend with their children.

Separation Anxiety

During this workshop, caregivers/parents will learn about separation anxiety and explore strategies that reduce their children's distress during big life transitions.

Conversations will also focus on caregiver self-care.

Early Childhood Development

During this workshop, caregivers/parents will gain a better understanding of their child's early development and how to support it at home.

Participants will learn about important developmental milestones for children between the ages of 0 and 5.

Health Barriers to Learning

Vision problems, hearing problems, and dental pain all make it hard for children to learn.

This workshop will teach caregivers/parents what to look out for, and how to address these health barriers to learning.

Transitioning from Home to School

This workshop provides information about school readiness and how caregivers/parents can support their child's transition to a school environment.

Speech and Language Development

During this workshop, caregivers/parents will gain an understanding of speech development, and why it is important to support it.

They will also learn important components, exercises, and ways to interact to help with speech development.
