Baree James Oliver Curwood,2020-04-17 During these first days of his life his home was in the heart of a great windfall where Gray Wolf his blind mother had found a safe nest for his babyhood and to which Kazan her mate came only now and then his eyes gleaming like strange balls of greenish fire in the darkness It was Kazan's eyes that gave to Baree his first impression of something existing away from his mother's side and they brought to him also his discovery of vision He could feel he could smell he could hear but in that black pit under the fallen timber he had never seen until the eyes came At first they frightened him then they puzzled him and his fear changed to an immense curiosity He would be looking straight at them when all at once they would disappear This was when Kazan turned his head And then they would flash back at him again out of the darkness with such startling suddenness that Baree would involuntarily shrink closer to his mother who always trembled and shivered in a strange sort of way when Kazan came in Baree of course would never know their story He would never know that Gray Wolf his mother was a full blooded wolf and
