

dined before we'll see you drop a dime of it into this God-forsaken hole. Not?"

"That we're partners," gasped Harlow.

"Not in this?" The statement was made the day previous, equivalent air, — through it all becoming an hourly-handled case of toll for such shoulders with Steve, — he purchased to dine with you, to take a party and a glass of Malvernian, at some restaurant in Sacramento — where you've got things fixed, in honor of your return to affluence. How much would it become us?"

"But what are you going to do?" said Harlow, with a half-hysterical, half-frightened smile.

"We have not yet looked through our baggage," said Devereux with inevitable gravity, "and there's a sacred volume — a double fold — to my perturbation, known only to a trusty page, which has not been disturbed since I left my ancestral home in Virginia. There may be a few First Debeverneses of Erie or what not still there."

"I felt some strange, disk-like protrusion, none in my dress suit the other day, but believe they are last year's ships," said Stacey thoughtfully.

An uneasy feeling crept over Harlow.

instantly upon the light and the bird on the window ledge Like all healthy young animals he would have tried to sleep again but with his momentary consciousness came the recollection that it was his turn to cook the breakfast that morning and he regretfully rolled out 1 of his bunk to the floor Without stopping to dress he opened the door and stepped outside secure in the knowledge that he was overlooked only by the Sierras and plunged his head and shoulders in the bucket of cold water that stood by the door Then he began to clothe himself partly in the cabin and partly in the open air with a lapse between the putting on of his trousers and coat which he employed in bringing in wood Raking together the few embers on the adobe hearth not without a prudent regard to the rattle snake which had once been detected in haunting the warm ashes he began to prepare breakfast By this time the other sleepers his partners Stacy and Demorest young men of about his own age were awake alert and lazily critical of his progress I dont care about my quail on toast being underdone for breakfast said Stacy with a yawn and you need nt serve with red wine I m not feeling very peckish this morning And I reckon you can knock off the fried oysters after the Spanish mackerel for me said Demorest gravely The fact is that last bottle of Veuve Clicquot we had for supper was nt as dry as I am this morning Accustomed to these regular Barmecide suggestions Barker made no direct reply Presently looking up from the fire he said There s no more saleratus so you must nt blame me if the biscuit is extra heavy told you we had none when you went to the grocery yesterday And I told you we had nt a red cent to buy any with said Stacy who was also treasurer Put these two negatives together and you make the affirmative saleratus Mix freely and bake in a hot oven Nevertheless after a toilette as primitive as Barkers they sat down to what he had prepared with the keen appetite begotten of the mountain air and the regretful fastidiousness born of the recollection of better things Jerked beef frizzled with salt pork in a frying pan boiled potatoes biscuit and coffee composed the repast The biscuits however proving remarkably heavy after the first mouthful were used as missiles thrown through the open door at an empty bottle which had previously served as a mark for revolver practice and a few moments later pipes were lit to counteract the effects of the meal and take the taste out of their mouths Suddenly they heard the sound of horses hoos saw the quick passage of a rider in the open space before the cabin and felt the smart impact upon the table of some small object thrown by him
