Britain John Ward,1920 The Roman Villa in Britain A.L.F. Rivet,2024-08-28 The Roman Villa in Britain 1969 is a comprehensive examination of Roman villas in Romano Britain in a series of essays by six specialists H C Bowen well known for his work on early field systems examines the evidence for the native Celtic agriculture which was practised in pre Roman Britain and continued to form the basis of the country s economy after the conquest The ground plans of the villas and their implications are discussed by Sir Ian Richmond while David Smith considers the mosaic pavements both as implications of the wealth of their owners and as evidence for the existence of distinct local schools of mosaicists Joan Liversidge deals with internal decoration and furnishing A L F Rivet reflects on the social and economic implications of the changing fortunes of the villas and Graham Webster discusses the future of villa studies from the standpoint of the modern excavator The Earliest Christian Meeting Places Edward Adams,2013-10-24 Edward Adams challenges a strong consensus in New Testament and Early Christian studies that the early Christians met almost exclusively in houses This assumption has been foundational for research on the social formation of the early churches the origins and early development of church architecture and early Christian worship Recent years have witnessed increased scholarly interest in the early house church Adams re examines the New Testament and other literary data as well as archaeological and comparative evidence showing that explicit evidence for assembling in houses is not nearly as extensive as is usually thought He also shows that there is literary and archaeological evidence for meeting in non house settings Adams makes the case that during the first two centuries the alleged period of the house church it is plausible to imagine the early Christians gathering in a range of venues rather than almost entirely in private houses His thesis has wide ranging implications Drama and Opera: Greek and Roman drama ,1909 A thousand miles of wandering along the Roman wall [&c.]. Edmund Bogg,1898 The Roman Mass in the English Church ,1899 The Indians of the Terraced Houses Charles Francis Saunders,1912 Jenkinson's Practical Guide to Carlisle, Gilsland, Roman Wall, and Neighbourhood ... five sisters and she's content standing in their shadows and cheering them on Her dreams are small help children overcome the speech impediments she had to deal with as a child get an engagement ring from her longtime boyfriend and have her wedding in the big red barn on her family's Texas ranch But even small dreams can blow up in your face Instead of a ring she gets the boot And now her family is about to lose everything Not just their ranch but also their home and the beloved barn unless Cloe is willing to enter into a wild scheme with the son of her father's archenemy Rome Remington has always tried to be the responsible obedient son After his mama ran off he helped his father make the Remington Ranch one of the most profitable ranches in Texas But now he has an opportunity to buy the neighboring ranch and the idea of getting out from under his controlling father's thumb is too good to resist There's only one problem The ranch is owned by the Holidays' ornery grandma who refuses to sell to just anyone the man must be willing to pay off the family debt and convince one of her granddaughters to marry him After his first disastrous marriage Rome swore he'd never get married again but what if this marriage is merely a business transaction Now all he has to do is convince a Holiday sister And what better sister than the practical Plain Jane But as it turns out there's nothing plain about Cloe Holiday Her inner strength kind heart and breathtaking kisses will soon have Rome scaling any garden wall to get to his cowgirl Juliet
